No End of Tests Before Disarmament: Ike

Aldermen Balk, Mayor Will Press for Streets

Action Is Tabled on $25,000

Council Session Long, Hot Affair

Mayor Frederick H. Stang indicated today that he will call a special session of the Common Council in a move to further street work, if no further bid is made for one by the aldermen, who last night tabled action on the mayor's bid for $25,000 to continue street repair.

Last night's session, which went beyond midnight, ended with tempers as ruffled as washboard pavement. It brought charges of wasteful spending from Richard V. Roth (R) 12th ward, who raced through lists of records, and this stirred William S. Keyser (R) second ward, to ask Roth "to come forward and make charges," and not "flim flam from the floor."

Proposal Fades Out

A proposal to hold a special session next Tuesday after a meeting of the aldermen and Mayor Stang, got lost in other argument, and a 12-1 vote delayed action on the sum requested.

As of June 1, the mayor noted in a letter, only $9,957 of the $40,000 street maintenance fund was left, and the latter sum, he noted, resulted from a cut of $10,000 from the original amount requested.

Attacks Roth

The meeting brought from Edwin Radel (D) third ward, a reminder to Roth that he had failed to go along with budget cuts as proposed by minority members, and at the height of heated argument George F. McArdle, (R) 13th ward, asked the council president to rule against discussion of personalities on the council floor.

The aldermen voted 11-2 to approve a sum of less than $6,000 for repairs to parks after eliminating an item calling for repair of the Kingston Point beach parking lot.

Will Issue Call

Mayor Stang, whose letter noted that the money authorized for street work this year was $18,000 under the 1956 sum, said today that if the aldermen do not ask for a meeting before the regular July session, "I, myself will call one."

The mayor said in his letter to the aldermen that when he first submitted his budget it had an item of $50,000 for highway maintenance. The sum finally adopted was $40,000.

By comparison, he said, $58,000 was authorized in 1956. In addition to that, he said, "funds were made available by the issuance of budget notes, and other credits, amounting to $32,280, or a total of $90,080."

Cites $10,359 Deficit

Even that amount, he noted, was insufficient "because there was a deficit at the end of the year of some $10,359. It can readily be seen, therefore, he said, "that considerable funds are required to maintain our streets."

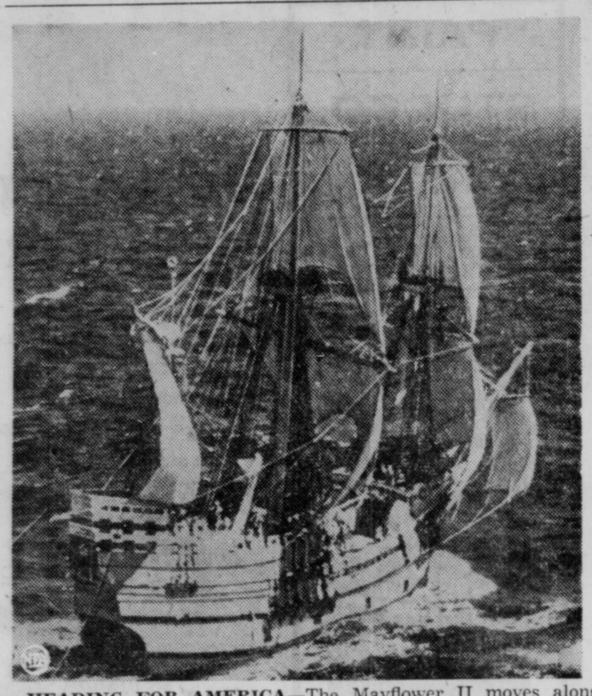

The streets take a "terrific beating" he said because of new area growth and increased traffic, and they must be repaired.

Force Is Less

To stay within the budget, he said, "we have not had as many men engaged in street maintenance as last year," and as a consequence many streets are in poor shape. Some need patching and others need to be partly resurfaced.

The requested $25,000, he suggested should be made a five-

Views Conflict About Revision

Most at Hearing Agree Constitutional Convention Good; Fearon Is Opposed

Buffalo, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Conflicting views on how the State Constitution should be revised have been voiced here at a public hearing by the temporary state commission on the constitutional convention.

Most of the 22 persons who testified for more than three hours yesterday agreed, however, that a convention in 1959 would be a better way to revise the Constitution than what one called the present "piecemeal" method of legislative action and referendums.

In Albany Today

The commission moved to Albany today for the second of its public hearings. The session was scheduled to begin at 10 a. m.

Voters will decide at the polls next November if a convention will be held in 1959.

Opposition to a convention was voiced yesterday by former State Sen. George R. Fearon of Syracuse, who represented the Associated Industries of New York State.

Fearon contended that a constitutional convention would be impractical and too expensive. He estimated the cost at four million dollars.

Fearon said it would be more practical to permit the legislature to use the normal process of amending the constitution. He said that voters have approved 50 of 53 amendments passed by the legislature since 1938.

Would Disregard Lines

A spokesman for the New York State Political Science Assn., W. H. Edwards, recommended that the state eliminate small units of local government and force consolidation into metropolitan areas. He urged that large cities be empowered to annex smaller communities and ur-

Court Hears Two Accuse Glenford Man of Abduction

Delhi, June 5 (AP)—Vincent A. Williams, accused of kidnaping three sisters, yesterday heard two of them describe the alleged abduction by Williams who, state police said, later raped one of the women.

Mrs. Gertrude Davis, 37, of Grand Gorge, and Mrs. Phyllis Van Dusen, 27, of Cortland, testified in Delaware County Court at the trial of Williams, a 45-year-old resident of Glenford, Ulster county.

Williams is being tried on three counts of kidnaping, three of first-degree robbery and one of carrying a loaded revolver without a permit.

Not Up on Other Charge

He is not being tried on a charge of rape. Authorities said he is alleged to have raped Mrs. Jane Chase, 41, of Grand Gorge, the third sister, in another county, on May 15, 1956.

Williams, who has pleaded innocent to the charges on which he is being tried, reiterated the

Catskill Defeats Centralization By 1301-897 Vote

Catskill, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—A plan to centralize 18 school districts was defeated last night, 1301 to 897, in a referendum capping a three-year fight.

The districts are in the towns of Catskill and Athens and include the village of Catskill. Opponents argued that local control would be lost and the state would take over. Proponents argued that most residents of the districts already were sending their children to the village of Catskill and that additional state aid would be gained by legal centralization.

No Council Action on State Bills

Radel Resolutions Called Political

Three resolutions pertinent to measures slated to be aired at a special session of the state Legislature June 10 were left with a Common Council committee last night over objection of miniority party members who sought council backing on them.

The resolutions by Third Ward Alderman Edwin Radel (D) pertained to state reconsideration of legislation on unemployment insurance, boosted workmen's compensation benefits, and proposed increases in telephone rates.

All were referred to the laws and rules committee and minority members sought a recess for report and action on them last night, but the council recessed without granting the request.

Political, Says Schwenk

Radel, at the end of the session, asked Alderman-at large John J. Schwenk, why action was not permitted on them, and Schwenk replied that he felt they were purely political in intent, and were not necessarily council business.

The Cordts Estate was granted a zoning change for a property on Hurley avenue near Taylor street on which a food market is to be built, and a $5,000 claim for damages by Virginia and Alfonso Williams, whose apartment at 46 Meadow street, was damaged by a truck May 4, was referred to the corporation counsel.

Turck Speaks

Fourth Ward Supervisor Joseph J. Turck was permitted to speak on conditions in his ward. Street conditions in the ward were also outlined in letters from Fourth Ward Alderman Frank Zakseski, who forwarded copies of letters to Mayor Frederick H. Stang and Ernest A. Steuding, public works superintendent.

On suggestion of Alderman Richard V. Roth (R) 12th ward, the aldermen also voted to ask action by the Board of Supervisors to prevent further complaints in the city as the result of heavy blasts set off at the Callanan plant across the Rondout creek or elsewhere in the area.

Reads Complaints

Roth read complaints as listed in the Freeman, and was backed up in the move by William K. Bodenweber (D) ninth ward and other councilmen.

Supervisor Turck, after complaining of lack of action to improve conditions in his ward, proposed that the city name a planning head to take charge of generally improving the city.

Both Turck and Zakseski proposed repair of many streets in the ward. Turck said when he asked the mayor why the work was not done, he received the reply that the "city was broke. No money." He felt that the city gained through reassessment, through revenue from new CAR IS TOTAL WRECK—Three local men were injured, one seriously, when this car struck an Esopus creek bridge pillar near the Washington avenue viaduct early today. Injured were the driver, William Buckman Jr., 22, of 59 West Chester street, who was reported "serious" at Benedictine Hospital today; Harry Nichols, 23, of 161 Tremper avenue, and Leonard Cox, 58, of 617 Delaware avenue, both reported "apparently fair" at Kingston Hospital. Police said Buckman, headed south on Route 28, lost control of his car on entering the bridge, hit pillar and overturned, pinning him in the car for one hour and 47 minutes before rescuers extricated him. Right front fender (arrow) of vehicle rests on bridge railing. (Anner photo).

Buckman Pinned in Car By Span Pillar Crash

West Chester Street Driver Serious at Benedictine; Harry Nichols, Leonard Cox Are in Kingston Hospital

Pinned in his car one hour and 47 minutes before he could be extricated after the vehicle struck an Esopus creek bridge pillar near the Washington avenue viaduct early today, William Buckman Jr., 22, of 59 West Chester street, was reported in serious condition at Benedictine Hospital, and two companions were described as apparently fair at Kingston Hospital.

Buckman suffered multiple lacerations, concussion, a possible neck injury and possible fractured skull, police reported. His condition was listed as "serious" this morning at Benedictine Hospital.

Also injured were Harry Nichols, 23, of 161 Tremper avenue and Leonard Cox, 58, of 617 Delaware avenue, passengers in Buckman's 1957 sedan.

Police reported Nichols suffered a lacerated face, fractured facial and nasal bones and contusions of the lower back, while Cox suffered lacerations of forehead and scalp, abrasions of the right ankle and fractured left clavicle.

Nichols and Cox both were reported in "apparently fair" condition today at Kingston Hospital.

Severest Accident

The accident, one of the most severe recorded by local police in some time, summoned to the scene a sizeable detachment of police, including 10 local patrolmen, sheriff's deputies and state police, two priests, two ambulances and two pieces of apparatus and men from Wiltwyck Station of the Kingston Fire Department.

While Nichols and Cox crawled from the car after the crash, police reported, the job of getting Buckman out of the "totally wrecked" vehicle was made hazardous by gasoline which spilled on the bridge.

A police report at 1:19 a. m., said Officers Floyd Krom, Everett Emmick, Harry Tempelaar, George Carpouzis and Joseph Keller were dispatched to the scene and Dr. Harry C. McNamara was summoned.

Also called were two wreckers, two Schultz ambulances, and the Rev. Joseph V. Keating, as-

Morhouse Sure GOP Work Bill Constitutional

Albany, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—The Republican state chairman says he is confident a GOP unemployment insurance bill, slated for passage at next week's special session of the Legislature, would be ruled constitutional by the courts.

L. Judson Morhouse expressed his opinion yesterday as he challenged Gov. Harriman to sign the measure and have "his friends in the Liberal party initiate a test case."

Court Test Remote

The prospect that Harriman would enter into a court test appeared remote.

Republican bills to boost weekly benefits of unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation from $36 to $45 were approved at the regular session of the Legislature. Harriman vetoed the measures because of what

Expresses Doubt of Big Blast

Concerned With Fallout, Defense

Washington, June 5 (AP) — President Eisenhower said today he would favor a complete ban on testing of atomic weapons—if there could be total and complete disarmament.

Eisenhower said he would like to allay world wide anxiety over fallout radiation.

Need Red Agreement

But Eisenhower went on to say at a news conference that the United States never could join in any ban on testing unless there also were an agreement with Russia against use of atomic weapons.

The President did express doubt that this country ever again will test such tremendously devastating hydrogen bombs as it has in the Pacific on two occasions.

Eisenhower's remarks were in response to questions about the testimony before a congressional committee.

Geneticists and other scientists have said there that fallout radiation from nuclear weapons tests will damage hundreds of thousands—and perhaps millions—of the yet unborn, in terms of physical deformities and shortened life spans.

Out Of Their Field

A newsman asked that Eisenhower—as the one who must make a final decision on whether this country should continue nuclear tests — report on what his scientist advisers had told him regarding fallout danger.

Eisenhower first said that some of the scientists giving views on the subject appear to have gotten out of their field of competence. He added that it seemed to be an organized sort of thing.

Asked why he felt that way, Eisenhower said he did not mean organization in any evil kind of way. Personally, he went on, he prefers to base his judgment on a study of the situation put out last October by the National Academy of Scientists.

Eisenhower said of course he is concerned about the possibility of fallout danger to future generations, but that he also is concerned with defense of the United States.

A good part of the conference dealt with the fallout situation, but it touched also on these other subjects:

Talks of Khrushchev

Khrushchev — Eisenhower made it clear he does not look with any favor on suggestions that he make an effort to go on Russian television and radio to reply to Communist party boss Nikita Krushchev. The Soviet leader was on American TV last Sunday.

Eisenhower, in discussing the matter, spoke of how the Soviets could "jam" any American reply, but said if that potential obstacle and others could be eliminated for sure, then certainly some American official would accept an invitation to answer Khrushchev.

Politics—A reporter reminded Eisenhower that Meade Alcorn, Republican national chairman,

New Temple Will Have Memorial to Late Rabbi Wise

The memory of one of America's most distinguished clergymen, the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, is to be perpetuated in the new Temple Emanuel which is to be erected on Albany avenue some time this year.

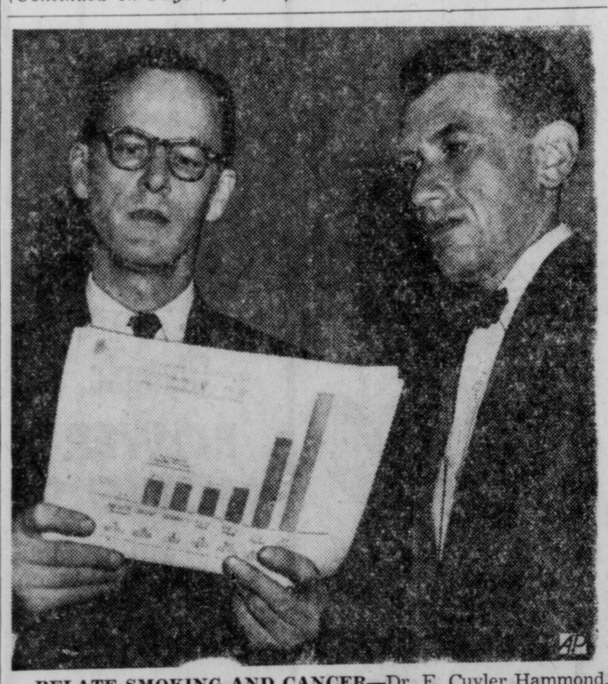

The current chairman of the $250,000 drive for funds for a new building for Kingston's oldest Jewish congregation, was notified today that the covered walk leading to the main entrance of the sanctuary will be named the Dr. Stephen S. Wise Memorial Walk.

Telephone Rate Bill Marked for Swift Death; Mahoney, Heck Split Continues

Albany, June 5 (AP)—The controversial telephone rate bill has been marked for swift death in Senate committee at next week's special session of the Legislature.

A well-posted Republican source said today the measure, designed to cripple the New York Telephone Co.'s bid for a 55½-million-dollar rate boost, would be killed just as it was at the regular session.

"The Senate certainly will not reverse itself on this issue," he said.

Senate Majority Leader Walter J. Mahoney, whose opposition proved fatal to the measure at the regular session, could not be reached for comment. But the GOP source's views were believed to reflect those of Mahoney's.

Thus it appeared that the special session, starting Monday, would see another dramatic split in the Legislature's Republican leadership.

At the regular session last winter, Speaker Oswald D. Heck personally pushed the measure through his house, with full knowledge of Mahoney's opposition in the Senate.

A spokesman for Heck said the powerful Assembly boss had not changed his attitude.

Heck's championship of the telephone bill has placed him in alliance—on that issue—with Democratic Gov. Harriman, who has placed the measure on the special session agenda.

The Public Service Commission, which must decide the rate-boost request, has been pushing hard for the legislation.

The bill in effect would nuulify a court decision that the PSC must consider replacement costs of company property in computing a fair return in the telephone rate cases. The commission's policy has been to consider the lower, original costs—less depreciation.

Enactment of the bill would not eliminate all prospects of an increase. But it would undercut the company's chief argument and provide the PSC with legal justification for drastically reducing the company's requests.

New York Telephone seeks to raise monthly charges on private home phones by 50 cents, on party lines by 65 cents and on business phones by $1.50.

The Senate Finance Committee killed the bill by a vote of 13-7 at the regular session. All 13 opposing votes were cast by Republicans.

The GOP opponents contended that, since real estate taxes were based on current property values, a different standard should not be set for rate-making purposes.

Proponents of the bill argued that it would correct an inconsistency in the public service law that puts all utilities, except telephone companies and railroads, on an original-cost footing.

Harriman has said the boosts sought by the company are "unwarranted."

East Berliner Finishes at Top Of Service Class

A fair-haired 22-year-old East Berlin youth who came 5,000 miles last November to join the U. S. Air Force has finished top in his class at the Scott Air Force Base Technical Training School, Belleville, Ill., it was announced today.

He is Airman Third Class Richard C. F. Dobe, a five-language man, who now goes to the U. S. Air Force Supply Depot, Chateauroux, France, about 100 miles from Paris.

Escaped to West

Young Dobe escaped from East Berlin into the western sector in 1954 in a real "cloak and dagger" piece of business, using a false passport.

Two years later, through the intervention of the Lutheran Refugee Service and the Harold Halwicks of Lake Katrine, who are "sponsoring" Dobe, he managed to get to America.

He entered the U. S. Air Force through the local recruiting office headed by Sgt. Larry Snyder and after completion of basic training was transferred to Scott Air Force Base.

In a certificate of achievement signed by Brig. Gen. Wentworth Goss, USAF, and Capt. Myron E. Thomas, USAF, it is pointed out that Dobe's "technical ability and earnest application reflect great credit upon himself. He is hereby commended for this notable achievement."

Not Citizen Yet

Dobe will be in personnel and classification at Chateauroux, according to Sgt. Snyder. The local recruiting officer explained that the overseas assignment reflected particular credit on Dobe. The Chateauroux post is a sensitive one and Dobe is not yet an American citizen. He has two and a half years to wait for citizenship.

The tall quiet-spoken youth, whose ambition is to become an officer in the U. S. Air Force, says he is pleased with the assignment to Chateauroux. He "learned a little French in school" which will help.

At Scott Air Force Base where he completed the intensive 16-week technical training school Dobe was flight leader in a group consisting of 45 men, according to Sgt. Snyder.

Appeal Date Is June 13 on Vote About Annexation

An appeal taken by a group of voters of the Union Free School District No. 5, Town of Hurley, from a referendum vote favoring annexation of the district to Onteora Central School District, will be heard on Thursday, June 13, at Albany before a representative of the State Education Department.

On April 6 at a special school meeting held at the West Hurley School it was voted 161 to 143 for annexation.

Allege Improper Procedure

Later a group of residents of the district who opposed annexation to Onteora appealed from the action at the meeting, alleging there was improper procedure at the meeting, that voters who were not eligible to vote had been permitted to vote and on other grounds. Alleged illegal voters were not challenged at the special meeting when they cast their vote.

Among the allegations is one that all of the trustes were not served with the order of the commissioner of education providing for the annexation, namely Trustee Clayton W. Vredenberg. Legality of posted and published notices of the meeting was also raised.

Further Action Uncertain

The appeal will be heard in Albany next week. Whether the matter will be taken to the courts should the appeal be denied by the State Education Department, has not been ascertained and what action the group may take if their appeal next week fails, is unknown at this time. They may take recourse to the courts or may abide by the decision of the education department. An appeal to the courts would entail a long and costly procedure.

Hunt Circus Is Coming June 17 For Scout Camp

Kingston's favorite circus will play two shows here Monday, June 17, for the benefit of the Boy Scout Camp Fund.

Hunt Brothers three-ringer is to be at Dietz Stadium lot for performances at 2 and 8 p. m., according to Henry P. Eighmey, scout circus chairman, who said that many new features will be seen.

"We'll use show funds for facilities at Camp TriMount," he said, "which is used by boys from Ulster and Greene counties in Rip Van Winkle Council."

Tickets for the circus organized here 64 years ago by Charles T. Hunt are on sale now at:

The Boy Scout office, 260 Fair street.

Chamber of Commerce office.

O'Reilly's, 38 John street.

Shapiro's, 63 North Front street.

Yallum's, Broadway and the Strand.

All tickets purchased in advance at the stores will directly benefit the camp promotion, it was stressed.

Last summer the circus drew good houses for the scout benefit, and it was decided to sign for its return with Mr. Hunt, who enjoys playing here and meeting many of his old friends. He's still going strong at 83.

Health for All

To the June Bride

One of the saddest Cinderella stories ever told was the one about the struggling young actress who won the heart of a millionaire.

Her family who had practically disowned her for seeking a stage career now opened their arms. They killed the fatted calf when she came home to prepare for her wedding. (Quite a change from living on malted milks in a Broadway drug store.) "Friends" who had laughed at her struggles were now only too glad to prove their undying affection.

Party followed party. Showers rained. In between, there were fittings, arrangements to be made, changed, and made all over again, thank-yous to write as the gifts poured in. If Cinderella got four hours sleep out of the 24 she was lucky. Plenty of chicken in patty shells and fancy desserts were set in front of her, but she was too excited to eat much. Between parties she lived on sandwiches and black coffee.

The wedding went off as scheduled: the biggest the town had seen for years. At last Cinderella found herself with the Prince in a first class cabin on the Queen Mary setting out on their honeymoon trip to Europe. She was sick the first day out, and the next, and so on. The sights of Europe were doctors' offices, hotel bedrooms, and medicine bottles.

This sad tale is not an unusual one. Too many brides start out on their honeymoons completely worn out by the wedding preparations. The first weeks of marriage are difficult enough without the added complication of a bride suffering from indigestion, exhaustion, and frayed nerves.

If you want a real wedding and a happy honeymoon, pay a visit to the family doctor before the festivities shift into high gear. He'll give you a thorough check-up and words of wisdom. You'll do well to follow his advice. Remember that the wedding is, after all, only the prelude to the main event.

"We Were Amazed"
Says CAR LIFE,
The Family Auto Magazine

We were amazed as we drove the Special four-door hardtop, to find that an automobile could be completely changed yet retain so much of its former appearance and character. The 1957 models have all the familiar, solid Buick virtues.

THE ABOVE brief clipping tells you worlds about the '57 Buick.

It tells you we went all out to make this car completely new—yet we didn't sacrifice a single Buick virtue.

So you still get that unmistakable Buick styling.

You still get that big-car room and comfort and that solid Buick quality.

But you also get so complete a change in the vitals of this car that the driving of it is a wondrous new experience.

You get a brilliant brand of performance that's different from anything else that goes on four wheels.

Words won't describe it. Telling you there's an all-new engine, an instant new Dynaflow,* a completely new power train—none of that will convey this news to you.

What you have to do is get in this car and drive it. Drive it around the block, through town, out on the highway. Actually feel what happens when you press the gas pedal, turn the steering wheel, touch those powerful new brakes.

Then—and not till then—will you know why folks call this "the dream car to drive."

The best advice we can give you, by far, is this: Ask your dealer for a trial run today.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Buzzer is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.*

WHO'S FOR A PICNIC?

Recently a disgruntled Englishman who has been United States correspondent for one of the big London newspapers returned to his homeland and heaved a mighty sigh of gratitude—in print, under fat headlines—to be away from those boorish, too-much-of-everything Americans.

Part of what he said had some truth in it; part of it was little more than bad tempered nonsense. But one remark he made was particularly interesting because it disclosed a profound ignorance as to the real nature of Homo Americanus. This homesick Briton, longing for warm beer and hardboiled eggs, averred that one of the good things about getting back to the tight little isle was that once again he could enjoy a real picnic.

Now, if there is one thing that Homo Americanus excels at, it is the delightful business of packing a basket and going off for a picnic. Millions of Americans will do this—and do it up brown—on the slightest pretext. Anyone from foreign shores who has not encountered good picnics in this country either has remained in the big city canyons or has simply not had his eyes open.

From California to Maine, America is dotted with fine picnic sites, formal and otherwise. No comparable area on the face of the earth has so many good places for picnicking. Nowhere else is there such a variety of interesting picnic food, ranging from the lowly wiener and potato chip to country fried chicken and fixin's. Nowhere, we would wager, do more people have more fun picnicking, on any given Sunday afternoon, than in these United States.

If the roving London newspaperman did not encounter this phenomenon, his boss might as well know, he simply didn't get around much while he was here.

DEATH TRAPS

There is hardly a community in the United States that is free of potential death traps for children. Every pond or drainage ditch, every excavation and gravel pit, every old refrigerator left unsecured on a back porch—these and many other hazards tempt children in a way that can lead to tragedy.

In a Minnesota town, a two-year-old girl toddled into a drainage pond and was drowned. A snow fence erected to guard the pond had been trampled down at one point, and the little tot had wandered through the break. When her mother found her floating in the water, it was already too late. This was but one instance of the kind of danger we have in mind. Others occur almost daily somewhere in the country.

As school ends and summer deepens, the number of such tragedies will inevitably rise. This is therefore, a good time for the children of each community to take stock of their surroundings. It would be an excellent community project to seek out such hazards and safeguard them in the best way possible. No community should wait until another tragedy stimulates it to action.

PEOPLE TO TYRANTS

Since the U. S. Post Office sells a four-cent post card with a four-cent reply card which is used to be sent abroad is the People-to-People campaign, it seems a good idea to use these post cards to write to Tito and Khrushchev.

Why not deluge Tito with post cards demanding that he release former vice president Milovan Djilas from the jail into which Djilas was thrown because he spoke like a free man? And why not flood Khrushchev with cards suggesting that he take the Russian soldiers, the Russian secret police and the Russian commissars out of Hungary?

It only costs eight cents now to tell tyrants that they are tyrants. It's well worth the price.

You can't judge a book by its cover, but by the lurid covers on some paperbacks you can make a pretty good guess as to the taste of the publishers.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

RIGHT TO WORK

I received a letter from a correspondent in Butte, Montana, who says:

". . . I believe you favor the so-called "Right-to-Work" laws. That most certainly is mislabeled as it gives no one the right to work, only the privilege of free-loading on his fellow workers. Suppose all those who voted on the opposite side of an election had the right to ignore the majority rule and do as they saw fit. . . ."

What this proves is that slogans do not represent thought but are something needed for identification. The slogan, "The Right to Work," identifies a movement in American life, a movement away from enforced unionism imposed upon the American people first during the Roosevelt Administration under the NRA and continued to this day. The question that was raised then and later when the National Labor Relations Act, better known as the Wagner Act, was passed was not whether trade unionism is good or bad but that in a free society it must not be involuntary. All forms of coercion, of force, of imposed uniformity are intolerable in our society.

This principle is fundamental and would have been better understood if an act were passed by Congress requiring us all to be Masons or Knights of Columbus or Elks or B'nai B'riths. As it involved a question of trade unionism, the problem of imposition, of force, of coercion, of involuntary action was cleverly side-stepped by the politicians. The current investigations by two Senate committees show, that in the instance of the McClellan Committee a number of union officials took the plea of the Fifth Amendment in matters involving embezzlement; and that in the instance of the Eastland Committee a number of union officials took the plea of the Fifth Amendment in matters involving Communist affiliations.

If all the affairs of all the labor unions of the United States were properly and adequately investigated, as they are not being investigated at the present time, they would generally show:

1. That the members are not in control, by democratic means, of their unions;

2. That the officers are a professional, self-perpetuating group who receive not only salaries but take enormous expense accounts;

3. That the reserves of many unions are enormous funds some of which are used speculatively in Wall Street and are employed to influence the control of companies; that other union funds actually are used to buy the stock of enterprises and to place nominees on Boards of Directors;

4. That union funds, paid as dues and assessments by American citizens to protect their jobs, are used to political purposes and are paid out in cash which is illegal if unreported. It would take a whale of an accounting job to trace this money but it can be done and it is worth doing. The responsibility for doing it is the McClellan Committee's and unless they do it, their investigations are meaningless because the essence of this problem is not that Dave Beck took some union funds for himself, but that labor leaders generally contribute to politicians and thereby exercise a money control over our affairs;

5. Further, it is now part of the pattern for both gangsters and Communists to infiltrate unions, to get at the treasuries which are so enormous. Part of the treasuries are insurance funds which should not be separated in the public's thinking from the treasuries.

This is the general pattern and while there may be some exceptions, it is not to the interest of the American people that the exceptions should be magnified into a rule. Even when exceptions are valid, they do not overcome the effect of this pattern upon the character of our society or the utilization of money for political purposes without adequate reporting which is the essence of a decent electoral system.

The question that has been raised by my correspondent from Butte, Montana, is ultra vires. The facts do not show that "free-loading" is of any importance in the labor situation; they do show that a monster has been created in American life, created by law, a monster that can be turned into a beneficial creature or into a murderous creature. The sole weapon for control is public accounting, in detail, of receipts and expenditures, and free and secret elections of union officials. Something of this character must come out of the McClellan Committee.

That Body of Yours

BLOOD IN THE URINE

Hematuria (blood in the urine) is the most important symptom that we know concerning the urinary tract. Most patients who pass blood in the urine have stones, tuberculosis or cancer, and cancer is the most important of these conditions.

At the present time, the curability of cancer of the urinary tract depends entirely on recognizing it for what it is at a stage when it can be removed by surgery. Therefore, it is important to assess proper value to all the signs and symptoms which may lead to us recognizing it during this period.

The urinary tract consists of the two kidneys, ureters (tubes which take the urine from the kidneys to the bladder) and the urethra (tube which takes the urine from the bladder to be thrown out of the body).

Dr. Edgar Burns, Ochsner Clinic, New Orleans, tells us that in 40 per cent or two-fifths of patients who pass blood in the urine, cancer exists. The occurrence of hematuria, therefore, requires complete investigation of the urinary tract to determine whether or not malignancy (cancer) is present. Such investigations are more important after the very first episode of bleeding since the cause of the bleeding is recognized in an earlier stage.

Cancer of the bladder is the most important of the malignant tumors of the urinary tract. It accounts for about three per cent of the total deaths from malignant disease, a figure that has been fairly constant for the past 20 years. In a series of 265 cases of tumor of the bladder studied by Dr. Burns and his associates, blood in the urine was the first symptom in more than three-quarters of the patients.

Hematuria is painless in the early stages and in the majority of cases it is rarely profuse enough to form clots. This is all the more reason to have a complete investigation at once because once pain appears with it, the tumor is no longer in the early stage. Pains when the bladder is full and frequent urination usually indicate that the volume of the bladder has been reduced by infiltration of the muscular coats of the walls by cancer cells. The length of time the patient will survive in cases of cancer of the bladder is more dependent on early recognition than in cases of other malignant tumors of the urinary tract. It is therefore important to consider the first episode of blood in the urine as an absolute indication for a complete examination of the genito-urinary tract.

Dr. Burns recommends that one means by which early cancer of the urinary tract may be recognized is to have a larger number of patients undergoing a general physical examination having an examination of the urinary tract as well. The importance of this is emphasized by the silent nature of cancer of the prostate which does not produce symptoms until it is in an advanced stage. There is more cancer of the prostate in males at the present time than any other form of cancer. It occurs in five of every 100 men who reach the age of 60.

Room With a View

Washington News

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington, (NEA)—Outgoing Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey devised a new "20 Questions" game to find if there is anybody around who is a real, true advocate of government economy.

This game can be played any place you get a group of people together.

The rules are simple. Let the chairman ask all those present to stand. The chairman then proceeds to read off the 2 questions given below. Every person who answers an honest "Yes!" to any of the questions must sit down. Such person is counted out as not being a true believer in government economy.

If there is anyone still on his feet at the end of the list, that person is "it"—a real devotee of decreased government spending.

ALL SET? Here's the first question:

1. Have you ever opposed raising U. S. postage rates so as to make the U. S. Post Office Department self-supporting?

If you answer "Yes!" sit down. You're out. Next:

2 Have you supported programs for greater federal expenditures in your community for housing or slum clearance?

3. Have you ever wanted the government to do a free dredging or flood control project on some nearby waterway?

4. Have you ever wanted Congress to pass a "pork barrel" appropriation for some dam or reclamation project?

5. Have you ever wanted the government to help build a new dormitory for your favorite college?

6. Have you favored more federal funds for community development, such as sewage disposal or water supply projects?

7. Have you favored shipbuilding subsidies for the maintenance of an American flag merchant marine?

8. Have you ever favored high, rigid price support subsidies on American farm products?

9. HAVE YOU wanted the government to continue subsidizing uneconomic mining operation by guaranteed rates of payment?

10. Have you ever advocated greater expenditures for a long list of "welfare" activities — including school lunches, medical research, aid to education, and so forth?

11. Have you ever been associated with groups seeking Hill-Burton Act funds for a new hospital in your area?

12. Have you ever protested when the Army, Navy, Air Force or Veterans Administration proposed closing or consolidating a government hospital in your area, for reasons of economy?

13. Have you ever endorsed increasing pensions or hospitalization benefits for veterans whose disabilities are not connected with military service?

14. Have you ever wanted the government to provide your community with a new airport?

15. Has any company with which you are connected ever received any benefits from accelerated tax amortization allowances?

16. Have you ever protested when the government proposed closing up some military installation or ending some business-type enterprise which would have taken a government payroll out of your community?

17. HAVE YOU supported greater federal appropriations for Rural Electrification Administration, Tennessee Valley Authority or any other public power projects?

18. Have you favored federal grants-in-aid to the states for highway construction, drouth relief, disaster loans, aid to depressed areas, public assistance or combating juvenile delinquency?

19. Have you ever urged greater federal expenditures for recreational facilities in the national parks, national forests or for the fish and wildlife service?

20. Have you ever written your congressman to help you get a job, a government contract or for tax relief or some other special favor that would cost Uncle Sam some money?

Anybody still standing who answered "No!" to all those questions? If so, give him the prize.

Jury Trials in Civil-Rights Contempt Cases Advocated

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, June 5—It was a wise move on the part of the Senate Judiciary Committee this week to recommend that jury trials be provided by law in contempt cases arising out of the enforcement of "civil rights." It will do more to help the cause of public understanding on the integration-segregation issue and similar questions than anything the Congress or the courts have done thus far.

This is because the action by the Senate committee comes at a time when emotion has been substituted for reason in many parts of both the North and the South in dealing with matters of law and constitutional rights.

A dramatic example was the case last week in Montgomery, Ala., when a white jury acquitted two white men who were defendants in a case involving the dynamiting of a Negro church. No one was injured, but property was damaged. It was apparent from the way the case was summed up by the prosecuting attorney and defense counsel that the issues were presented in the background of current antagonisms. Although the defendants had signed a confession, the claim was made later that it had been irregularly processed — that it wasn't made at police headquarters but in a hotel room under circumstances which led to the expression of many doubts.

This correspondent spent the weekend in Alabama and talked to many people about the integration question. Notwithstanding the individual beliefs of citizens generally, it is fair to say that many people who are on the anti-integration side were shocked by the verdict of the jury at Montgomery. Yet in some respects the verdict wasn't surprising. As one man in the South put it: "Why should not twelve men in Alabama express their feelings in a verdict, when nine sociologists on the Supreme Court do the same thing?"

Recent Cases of Rape

Reference was made specifically to some of the recent cases of rape committed by Negroes against white women—cases in which confessions were duly recorded and guilt plainly established, only to have the Supreme Court of the United States reverse such verdicts on technicalities and allow the defendants to go free.

Emotionalism has brought a state of tension that is not going to be cured by any provision of law denying jury trials merely because the privilege has been or might be abused. While contempt committed inside a courtroom has always been punishable by a judge without a jury trial, and attempts to violate directly the terms of an injunction are ordinarily within the power of a judge alone to punish, the real issue is whether the judge's injunctions can be stretched to cover crimes committed outside the courtroom itself that normally are tried by juries.

Far From Settled

It is better, therefore, for Congress to error on the side of caution and to put faith and trust in the people in all sections of the country, rather than to assume in advance that they cannot be trusted in the jury box. To apply such faith is to follow the path of reason as against emotionalism.

For the racial questions are far from settled, and those persons who think that, by the order of any court, the people of the South or of any other section will approve an edict which they honestly believe is not constitutional just do not understand the workings of human nature. The crusade, for instance, against the Eighteenth Amendment on prohibition — the willful disregard of the provisions of the law by millions of people — showed clearly that a reform which isn't sold to the people in advance by thorough understanding isn't accepted just because it is solemnly proclaimed as "the law of the land."

Not Just in South

It's a condition rather than a theory which confronts the nation in dealing with the racial question which now has begun to present problems in all parts of the country, and not just in the South. Violence will not solve it, nor will coercion by broad injunctive orders of the courts. An adjusted society has to come voluntarily out of the processes of reason.

The amendment to the law which would grant jury trials in contempt cases involving alleged crimes is bound to assist the cause of reason. It puts the responsibility squarely upon the people to see to it that jury trials are fairly conducted and fairly resolved.

There are, of course, extremists on both sides. Their number will diminish, however, only as a sense of fairness develops through the application of reason instead of violence. That's why the grant of a jury trial in criminal contempt cases would be a progressive step toward a better understanding of the responsibilities of citizenship. But if Congress, on the other hand, does deny jury trials, far more ground will be lost than gained in the emotionally complicated, if not presently unsolvable, problem of socialogy and government.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

A sports broadcaster recently had as "guest" an old-time professional tournament caddy who had carried for a fabulous master of the sly arts and wiles of the itinerant slicker, known as Titanic Thompson. There are many such sharks these days and some golf layouts in Florida, Nevada and the vicinity of Hollywood are open-air equivalents of the pool rooms of Broadway and Madison street long ago. Leo P. Flynn, who, with his wife, Kate, had 19 fighters going one New Year's day soon after the racket revived in the '20's, had been a pool-shark and a member of the resident faculty of Jack Doyle's billard academy so he brought to the verdant spreads of golf an exquisite touch developed indoors. He handled Jack Dempsey against Tunney in Chicago and upholstered his roll with his short game during the training camp. I often saw him in Tex Rickard's office, putting clear across the room into a water glass laid on its side.

Tex liked to golf but he wouldn't putt against Leo for money.

In all my years writing sport I never laid eyes on Titanic Thompson but I take it that he wasn't welcome at the tournaments which were my principal interest in golf and the committees reserve the right to turn down applicants without explanation.

This caddy said Titanic derived his name from a legend that he escaped from the Titanic disguised as a woman.

That I doubt because I have checked the passenger list and roster of the ship's company and found nobody named Thompson. The nearest was one Thomson, a sailor in the black gang. He escaped by fair means.

A rich merchant from a middling city in the Mississippi valley was said to have been shot dead in a life boat by the British sailor in charge when it developed that he was a man with a skirt and shawl and the news stories after the Carpathia docked in New York included indistinct reports of shots fired into the air to frighten steerage passengers who were about to stampede. The steerage were treated as scum by the ship's officers and even by the journalism of the day which concerned itself almost entirely with the first class trade. Whether this merchant was shot or not, he did lose his life for his name showed up on the roll of those who died. One paper in his home city insisted that the story was true. His family objected but to no effect.

In the course of my inquiry I found reports that John Jacob Astor tried twice to get into the boat with his wife, the late Madeline Force Astor Fiermonte, but was ordered back onto the Titanic out of extravagant regard for a silly order which sent some boats away half-filled with women whose husbands stood at the rail blowing kisses. Astor said he just wanted to comfort his young wife who was pregnant.

Major Archie Butt, the military aide to Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Taft, went down smiling, a gallant climax to an otherwise flimsy career. He was commissioned a captain of the Quartermaster Corps by direct appointment and seems to have had no experience in battle. The QM Corps in wars previous to World War 2 was the catchall equivalent of the current press relations departments of all the services. Irvin S. Cobb had written that Butt's entire name, with a cumulative cadence of polysyllables, winding up with the surname, sounded like a cookstove falling downstairs.

The legend of the male who disguised himself as a woman was fictionalized by Wilson Mizner, a spectacular scamp but a good writer, in a story called "you're dead," published in the smart set. The central figure was an underworld character, a tubworker or sea-going card-shark, who got ashore to discover that the rogues of his own set despised him. So he buried his identity and started fresh. As a man could do before the days of social security cards and the police state created under Franklin Roosevelt.

I have never understood why either Titanic Thompson or a lesser slicker calling himself Titanic Thomas adopted that name with its repulsive implication. Titanic Thomas was in jail in Tucson last winter but they let him go because he said he needed treatment for cancer and he was off to Vegas by the time I though of asking him.

Both Thompson and Thomas at their best were great slickers, at cards and dice as well as golf. As with most of their kind, they were deadly within 100 yards of the cup and Thomas could play as well from either side of the plate. His is up toward 70 now but within the last two years he could beat most club champions for money. He was barred from decent clubs but sometimes sidled in as a business man from Evansville, on vacation. He had a record as long as a two-pound trout scored in Evansville, Joplin, Springfield, Mo., El Dorado and Tulsa, but, rather oddly, Tucson where crime is a relatively safe career, is the only city where he really took a rap. He had served most of a year when the court let him go. The charge was messing around with teen-age girls. A few days after he got out he showed up at a public fee layout—with two little 'teeners.

Announce Judges For Horse Show

Woodstock, June 5—James A. Rooney, of Hunts End Loudonville, whose hunter, Four Roses, captured the Malcolm R. Grahame Hunter Championship Trophy last year, will return this year as judge for hunters and jumpers and Morgan Horses. Mr. Rooney also is offering the James A. Rooney Working Hunter Championship Challenge Trophy, a silver bowl which must be won three times for permanent possession, at the 11th annual Woodstock Horse Show, Sunday, June 16, at the Ohayo Mountain grounds, starting promptly at 9 a. m. The new trophy replaces the Grahame trophy which Four Roses won in three successive years for permanent possession.

Mr. Rooney is widely known in this and the New England areas along with Four Roses who has been a consistent winner of awards and trophies. He was Reserve Champion at the Syracuse State Fair, and has won prizes in Connecticut, Massachuseets, Vermont and in Dutchess county. Mr. Rooney started judging shows two years ago and it has kept him busy ever since. Among the shows he has judged are the Bushill Show, Milton, Mass.; the show at Newport, R. I., last week, the Ox Ridge Hunt Club, Darien, Conn., and the Lakeville show also in Connecticut. With Four Roses an established champion, Mr. and Mrs. Rooney have also begun to show a young hunter they have acquired who has already a reserve championship to his credit.

Frank D. Hawkins, who will also judge the hunters and jumpers, the hunter seat equitation and the western horses, comes from Bedford. Mr. Hawkins reports that he grew up in an atmosphere of racing, hunting and polo.

He served his apprenticeship with two of the greatest trainers in Europe and rode races all over Europe and in Australia. Mr. Hawkins came to this country in 1923 to take charge of Laddie Sanford's string of polo ponies and hunters. He started his own business of Shannon Stables in 1932. In 1934 he organized and hunted the Grangeburg Hunt hounds which was an immediate success, and continued with them until 1944 when Uncle Sam took over the whole territory for the building of Camp Shanks, necessitating Mr. Hawkin's move to Bedford.

H. A. Putnam, of Springfield, Mass., who was a judge at a Woodstock Horse Show some years ago, will judge the Saddle Horse and Saddle Horse Equitation classes, and Harold Cornish of Pine City, will judge the Walking Horse, Parade and Western classes. Malcolm Grahame of Poughkeepsie, will serve as the American Horse Shows Association's steward.

The Horse Show Committee is as follows: Mrs. Herbert Cutler, Kingston, show chairman; Charles H. Ashley, Kingston, show secretary; Mrs. Alton Dietz, Hurley, show treasurer. Griffin Herrick is president of the Woodstock Riding Club, Inc., which is a regular member of the American Horse Shows Associations, Inc.

Entries for the June 16 event, which is a Class C Show, will be received up until the time the class enters the ring.

Jayncee Luncheon Is Set for June 8

The Woodstock Jayncees will hold their charter luncheon Saturday, June 8, at 1 p. m., at the Watson Hollow Inn.

The guest speakers will be Mrs. Jacqueline Headley, president of the New York State Jayncees; Mrs. Viola Jaenhnert, first vice president of the New York State Jayncees and Mrs. Claire Jordano, New York state delegate for the Jayncees. The luncheon is being held for the purpose of the presentation of the charter to the recently formed Woodstock group.

Seats Available

There are still a number of reservations available for the bus trip to New York, June 6, sponsored by the Woodstock Home Demonstration Unit. The bus will leave the village green at 8 a. m., and New York city at 8 p. m. Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. Elsie Ertz.

Schimmerling Will Conduct Program

Hanus A. Schimmerling, director of the opera ensemble group at the Chatham Square Music School, New York city, will conduct an operatic program given in the school auditorium, 211 Clinton street, New York city, at 8:15 p. m., Saturday, June 8. The program will include excerpts from Verdi's La Traviata and Othello; Puccini's Madam Butterfly and Tosca; and the third act of Offenbach's Tales of Hoffmann.

Some of the performing artists are well known to Woodstock: Naomi Lieberman, featured in last season's Harmony Hill Concerts; Pamela Munson who performed at the fund raising party at the Byrdcliffe Theatre; William Werbell, member of the Turnau Opera Players during the 1956 summer season. Other performers will be Florence Bosworth and Carlene Price, sopranos; Frank Miller and Burton Weiser, tenors; and Denis Perrin, bass.

IOOF Plans Dinner

Bearsville Lodge, 533, IOOF, will hold a roast beef dinner at the Lodge Hall in Bearsville, Saturday, June 8, with the first serving at 5:30 p. m. The supper will be prepared and served by the members of Agapae Rebekah Lodge.

Church News

The sermon topic for the churches of the Woodstock Methodist Parish for Sunday, June 9 will be "Pentecost." Pentecost is commonly recognized as the beginning of the Christian Church. This sermon points toward the beginning, to a response in the present and a challenge to the future. The regular meeting of the Methodist Youth Fellowship will not be held on Friday. The Woodstock Wesleyan Service Guild will meet in the church hall Monday, June 10 at 8 p. m. The Wittenberg WSCS will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, June 11 at 8 p. m. in the Wittenberg Youth Center.

Speaker, Parade Highlight Holiday

Woodstock, June 5—The Rev. Garnett Wilder, pastor of Woodstock Methodist Church, was the principal speaker at Town Hall prior to the Memorial Day parade in the village, according to a report from the village today.

Following the Town Hall service, a parade formed and marched to Woodstock Cemetery.

France Retires Vessel

Paris, June 4 (AP)—The French navy has retired one of its two battleships, The Jean Bart, because it hasn't the money to bring her up to date. A navy spokesman announced last night that the "painful" action was all that could be done with French government finances the way they are. The fight against the Algerian rebels has resulted in an acute financial crisis which two weeks ago brought down the government of Premier Guy Mollet.

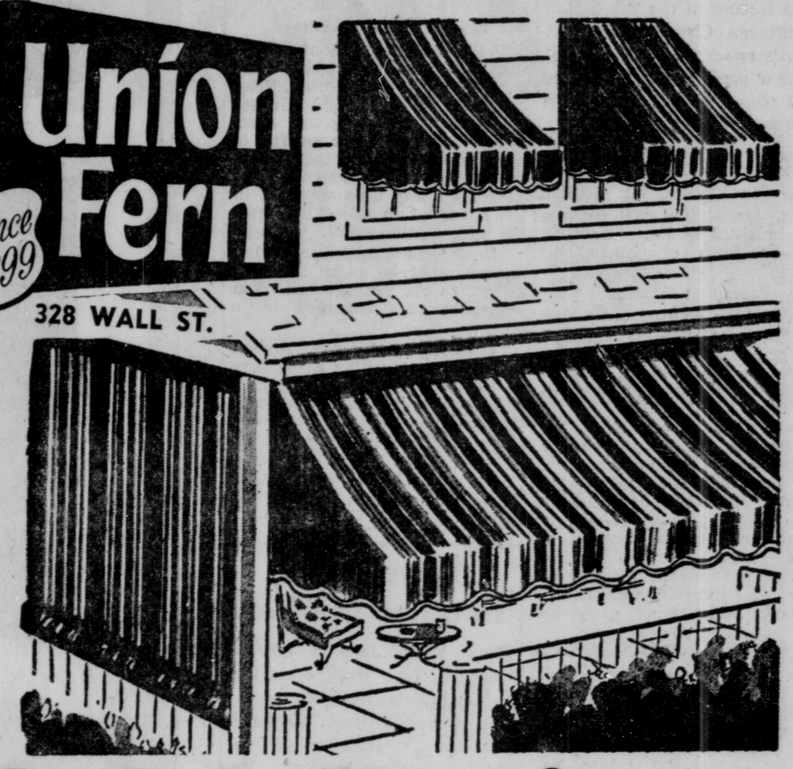

Glove Note

The French glove making industry was established under a code of statutes received from the king in 1190.

Fulton Trip Puts Light on Snyder Span Predictions

In a lecture in the Town Hall of Jefferson City, Mo., almost 20 years ago Frederic Snyder of Kingston predicted that bridges would play a prominent part in the news of that year.

In January, 1938, the great Buffalo bridge to Canada went down with the ice, Mr. Snyder recalls. More than 700 bridges were involved in the news that year—"a form of journalistic history."

Prompted Interest

Mr. Snyder pointed out today that "this fact put me in touch with bridge engineers and many experts in many lands. It also prompted my local interest in the bridge here."

Opening of the new Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge and the voyage of the Peter Stuyvesant from New York city to Albany commemorating the 150th anniversary of Robert Fulton's history-making trip up the Hudson in the Clermont, the world's first practical steamboat, recalled to Mr. Snyder the bridge comments he made some score of years ago.

Dedication Speaker

Mr. Snyder was the principal speaker at an informal luncheon at the Beekman Arms Hotel, Rhinebeck, opening the dedication day ceremonies for the Kingston-Rhinecliff bridge on May 11.

He paid tribute at that time to the part played by Americans of Indian descent who worked on the structure and suggested that all holders of the Congressional Medal of Honor be permitted free passage over the bridge at any time.

Mr. Snyder also called to mind today a similar lecture he made in Jefferson City, Mo., Town Hall, in February, 1938, and produced a copy of an editorial in the Jefferson City Post-Tribune under date of June 29, 1938, as follows:

"Frederic Snyder who lectured on 'Beating the Headlines' before Town Hall here last February, said among other things that bridges would play a prominent part in the news of 1938.

Bridge Made Headlines

"At Miles City, Mont., more than 40 persons perished when a railroad bridge collapsed. Prior to that the great Bibb Graves bridge in the south was damaged. The newspapers are full of headlines concerning the bridges in Canton. The bridges in the New York city area were all in the headlines in connection with the presidential yacht.

"It will be remembered that on the night he spoke here the Golden Gate Bridge of San Francisco was damaged by a storm.

"It is his opinion that bridges will continue to play a big part in the news during the remainder of the year. In the light of the accuracy of his forecasts made here his prediction will be watched with interest.

"We don't know how he does it but this man Snyder has something on the crystal ball.

WEST HURLEY

West Hurley, June 5—Forty Hours Devotion opens June 9, with a high Mass at 9:15 a. m. in St. John's West Hurley. Monday, 8 a. m., Mass for Peace. Solemn closing Tuesday 8 p. m. All the children of the parish are to participate in the procession and closing of the Forty Hours Devotion.

Plans are being made for the annual parish carnival at West Hurley June 30. The annual bazaar at the Woodstock Town Hall will be held Sept. 1.

The Altar and Rosary Society and the Holy Name Society received communion at the Mass May 19. The Rev. John J. O'Reilly celebrated the Mass and also attended the communion breakfast held at Deanie's in Woodstock at which time he was speaker. Joseph Campbell of Bearsville was toastmaster and Kjell Will Peterson, of Glen Oaks, L. I., also spoke as did Father J. Nemecek, Anthony P. Pizzarelli, president of the Holy Name Society and Mrs. Paul Joyce, president of the Rosary and Altar Society.

A new Mass will be added for the summer at Woodstock at 12 noon.

Schedule of services: Sunday Mass 8 a. m., St. Joan of Arc, Woodstock; 9:15 a. m., St. John, West Hurley; 9:30 a. m., St. Augustine, West Shokan; 11 a. m., St. Joan of Arc, Woodstock; week days 8 a. m., West Hurley; Novena, 8 p. m. Monday, St. John, West Hurley.

The West Hurley Cub Scouts 66 held their pack meeting at the firehouse Thursday evening. Mrs. Clarence Anderson will be a Den Mother next year.

On Saturday, May 18, Boy Scout Troop 66 went on an overnight camping trip to Camp Tri-Mount. The scouts who made the trip were Senior Patrol Leader Daniel Davidson, Michael Pizzarelli, James Saxe, Raymond Smith, Volker Doehler, Robert Saxe, Bruce Hopkins, Howard Hopkins Jr., Charles Russell and Jan Brooking. The leaders who accompanied the boys on the trip were Edward Hareth, scoutmaster; Clarence Anderson, Explorer advisor and Ira N. Saxe. Assisting in transporting the Scouts were Mrs. Ira Saxe and David Davidson.

Troop 79 Girl Scouts and Brownie's Troop 44 took part in the Girl Scout Court of Awards held recently at Woodstock. The girls attended with their leaders Mrs. David Fox and Miss Louise Haynes and their parents. Miss Barbara Vernona and Miss Anna Doll took part in the color guard ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Blatter have recently moved into their new home on Wall street.

In observance of Teacher Recognition Day, teachers of the West Hurley School were showered with notes from the parents as well as each teacher was presented with a corsage from their class. On Monday evening the Board of Education invited the teachers and staff to a dinner held at the Barn to observe their appreciation for the work done this year. Those attending were James Hogan, chairman of the board; Robert Nussbaum, Clayton Vredenburg, James McCarty, Arthur Rice, Mrs. Maude Corrigan, Mrs. Peter Etienne, Mrs. Jack Kelly, Mrs. Jack Glair, Miss Louise Haynes, Mrs. Howard Every, Mrs. Nick Soszka and Mrs. Lawrence Ryan.

Mrs. Donald Patridge was elected president of the Wesleyan Guild of the Methodist Church at a recent meeting. Also elected were: Mrs. David Fox, vice-president; Mrs. Everett Glass, secretary and Mrs. Jerry Kemmerer, treasurer. A stork shower also was held in honor of Mrs. Alfred Nussbaum. Those attending were the Mmes. Richard Guice, Edward Hereth, David Fox, Garvin Russell, Jay Molyneaux, Howard Every, Clarence Anderson, Lester Strickland, Harold Garrison, Jerry Kemmerer, A. Clois, Donald Partridge, Charles Duffy, Ira Saxe and Miss Claudia Williams

A surprise bridal shower was held recently for Mrs. Gerald Sherriff, the former Miss Barbara Smith Seaman at the home of Ann McAuliffe. Hostesses were the Mmes. Thomas McAuliffe, Henry Gleich, Clifford Seaman, Beulah Lentz, Jane Gage, Kathryn Van Vleet, Daisy Tighue, Amy Hauser, Philip Kenny, John Frangello, Theodore Rose, Edward McCooey and Kenneth Gordon. Also the Misses Vivian Van Vorst, Roberta Hogan, Claire McMahon, Janet Hauser, Sarah Moore, Lillian Koniuk, Linda Seman and Lela Gage.

Enrollment for summer school for the parishes of St. John, St. Joan of Arc and St. Augustine started Sunday, May 26. This course will be given by Sister of Divine Charity. It will be given for three weeks, five days a week starting with 9 a. m. Mass each day, at St. John's Church. Classes will start July 8, continue July 15, 22.

Ike to Send Message

Washington, June 5 (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to send a message to be read at the July dedication of the Harry Truman Library at Independence, Mo. Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said in response to inquiries yesterday that Eisenhower's message "undoubtedly will be read" by Franklin G. Floete, head of the General Services Administration (GSA). Floete will attend the ceremony to accept the library on behalf of the government. Hagerty added that Floete would be there in his GSA capacity and not as a personal representative of Eisenhower.

Wheel Chair Show

New Orleans, June 5 (AP) — Dorothy Lamour gave her night club show last night from a wheel chair. The movie actress fractured her right ankle yesterday and was unable to stand. She was wheeled into the room with her leg in a plaster cast to fulfill her promise to perform "even if it kills me." Her physician reportedly said she may be able to stand in a few days.

Atonement Organ Is Due August 12

The Rev. Richard I. Crossland, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Atonement in Saugerties, announced today that word has been received from the M. P. Moller Co. in Hagerstown, Md., that the new pipe organ purchased last year will be delivered Aug. 12. The congregation authorized the purchase last fall at a cost of $7560, deciding to dedicate it in memory of Anna and Sophie Heise in gratitude for a bequest they made to the church.

"The installation of the new two-manual organ, will cause some changes in the physical appearance of the church," Pastor Crossland said. "The tone chamber for the organ will be in its present location, but the console and the choir loft will be placed in the balcony, which will make it possible to care for need for more room for the choir. This will also make the full communion rail available for use, and also make it possible to have a baptistry in the church," he said.

It is expected to take two weeks to completely install the organ, and therefore it is hoped that the new organ will be used for the first time on August 25, after which there will be formal dedication services in the fall.

Reports Flu May Spread to Britain From Far East

London, June 5 (AP)—The British Medical Research Council said today "it is likely" the new form of influenza sweeping the Far East will spread to Britain and Continental Europe.

"How soon it gets here, I cannot say," an official added.

British specialists were working around the clock at the World Influenza Center in London to find a vaccine capable of fighting the disease — a new strain of influenza virus A.

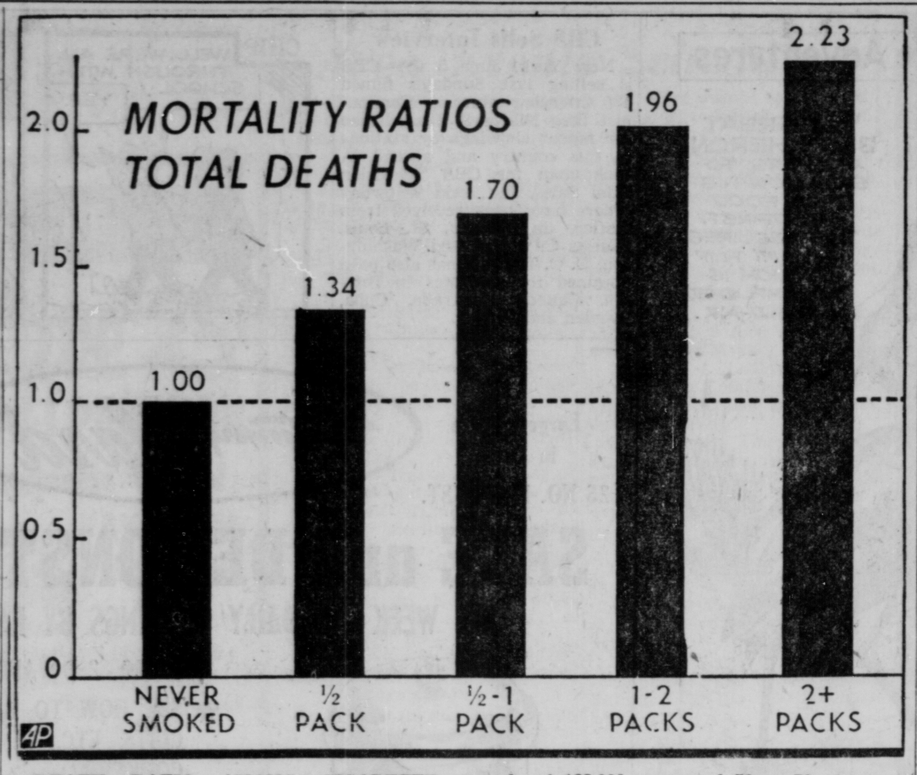

There are two main types of influenza—viruses A and B—of which the former generally gives rise to epidemics.

The spokesman said specimens of the new strain were flown here from the Far East in mid-May and the search for a suitable vaccine has gone on constantly since. The epidemic first appeared in Hong Kong in Aprli, and thousands were stricken.

Already, 185 epidemic deaths have been reported from the Philippines, 21 have died in Bombay and 10 in Calcutta. Hundreds of thousands have recovered, however, and Britain officially regards it as a "mild" disease.

Boy Faces Court Action

Cleveland, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—A 13-year-old boy, accused of firing a fatal shotgun blast into the face of a playmate, faced Juvenile Court action today. Ronald Phelps, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Phelps, died yesterday in an ambulance taking him to a hospital in Oneida, about 30 miles southeast of this Oswego county village. State Police Sgt. C. E. Walburgh said Charles Worden, son of Stewart Worden, admitted shooting Ronald after the boys had argued about 12 cents Ronald owed Charles.

DEATH RATIO AMONG CIGARETTE SMOKERS—This chart by the American Cancer Society was released in New York June 4 with its report said to show that death rates from all causes increased markedly with amount of cigarette smoking. Lung cancer and heart diseases were most prominent causes. In four-year study of 188,000 men aged 50 to 70, the mortality ratios rose from 1.00 for men who never smoked, left column, all the way up to 2.23 or 123 per cent higher for those who smoked two packs or more per day, right column. Time Extended For Saugerties J-S School Bids

Date for receiving bids for construction of the Saugerties junior-senior high school has been extended until July 2 at 8 p. m., Dr. Grant D. Morse, superintendent of schools, has announced.

Dr. Morse said the extension was approved by the Saugerties Board of Education at Monday night meeting "upon the urgent recommendation of the architects."

Contractors Asked Time

Sarkis Arkell, representing the architectural firm of Sargent, Webster, Crenshaw and Folley, told the board that several contractors had requested additional time in order "to be in a position to bid on the new junior-senior high school building."

Dr. Morse said the request for a time extension "is somewhat understandable if one examines the book of specifications which is nearly two inches thick and runs approximately 175 pages."

Mr. Arkell noted that an extension of time will be likely not only to provide more bidders but would give all bidders the time necessary to make a careful estimate thus assuring the district of the chance of more bids: It was the opinion of the architects that if the bidding were rushed and insisted upon as of the original date, the district would be in danger of getting higher bids from all prospective bidders, Dr. Morse said.

Fuel Bid Accepted

Bids for the providing of fuel oil to the buildings in the Saugerties Central School system were received from two bidders: R. K. Ballard, Inc. and Amos Post, Inc. The Amos Post bid was slightly lower and was accordingly accepted since the bidder promises to meet all specifications, he said.

Delegations from the board including Henry Haeussler, Kenneth Beadle, and Mr. Arkell met briefly with the Village Board Monday evening and requested information regarding water and sewerage connections. These problems are being studied by the Village Board who will meet later with the Board of Education to make a determination in these matters.

4th Victim Dies

Monticello, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—A fourth person died today from injuries suffered in a two-car head-on collision that killed three others Sunday. Aaron Stern, 24, of (93 Featherbed Lane) the Bronx, died in Monticello Hospital from head injuries. Two others hurt in the crash when the cars met on a curve at midnight are in good condition at the hospital.

Street Lights Are Assured for Mt. Marion Park

Street lights for 236 homes in Mt. Marion Park were assured Tuesday night by the approval of the Saugerties Town Board at a special hearing in Mt. Marion Reformed Church hall.

Cost will average $5.45 per thousand dollars assessed valuation. Total assessed valuation for the new approved light district is $294,845.

Saugerties town Supervisor Peter Williams presided at the hearing attended by over 20 persons.

Petitions were presented covering over 51 per cent of the assessed valuation of the newly formed district.

Entire cost of installation and setting up the district will be borne by the Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. It was indicated that the $5.45 rate covers only the cost of the service.

Representing Central Hudson at the hearing were Robert Strickland and Henry Daniels.

Driver Education

An organizational meeting for adult driver education during the summer will be held at Saugerties High School on Tuesday, June 11 at 7:30 p. m.

Nuclear Device Exploded From Balloon in West

Atomic Test Site Nev., June 5 (AP)—The United States today exploded a baby nuclear device for the first time from a balloon 500 feet above Yucca Flat.

The explosion, touched off at 4:55 a. m. PDA, was barely discernible at Las Vegas, about 70 miles away.

The Atomic Energy Commission said officials at the control point about 15 miles from the balloon saw a brief flash and several seconds later the usual mushroom appeared. It rose slowly to above 6,000 feet.

Dr. Gerard W. Johnson, test director from the University of California's radiation laboratory at Livermore, Calif., which designed the device, said from the technical viewpoint the test "was successful."

Observers said the shot, third in the U. S. summer series, appeared smaller than the one fired last Sunday, which was estimated at about 2 kilotons. A kiloton is the equivalent of 1,000 tons of TNT.

Body Identified

Massena, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—The body of a man recovered from the St. Lawrence river last night was identified today as that of Richard Carr, 22, of Exeter, N. H. State police said Carr accidentally drove his bulldozer off the Barnhart Island cofferdam last May 19 while working on the St. Lawrence power project. The body was found near the Barnhart Island Bridge, about a mile upstream. The bulldozer has never been found.

Paltz Jaycees Discuss Projects

Project reports and plans for others were discussed at a meeting of New Paltz Junior Chamber of Commerce held recently.

Ralph Dennis, president; George Stiller, state director; and Donald Otis reported on their attendance at the New York State Jaycee Convention held at Lake Placid.

The park committee reported progress on work being done at the bathhouse and grounds of Mike Morello Memorial Park. A program for the solicitation of funds for use by the park commission was organized and canvassing is underway, it was reported.

George Reed reported the Atoms for Peace van, which visited New Paltz early in May, was well received.

Following are committee appointments: Public relations, Eldon Johnson and George Reed; Youth activities, Donald Otis; Membership, John Metzler, and social activities, Edward Valentine.

Next meeting is scheduled Monday, June 17 at the VFW Post. Those interested in joining the Jaycees are invited to attend.

Plunges to Death

Chicago, June 5 (AP)—An estranged wife plunged to her death last night from a 38th floor office window of the Board of Trade Building, one of Chicago's tallest skyscrapers. Police identified the woman as Mrs. Marie Devaney, 29, a secretary for a barge company, which occupies offices in the building at La Salle and Jackson streets.

In the Service

Ends Training

W. A. TUBBY

William A. Tubby, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tubby, 65 Staples street, has completed nine weeks of recruit training at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md. The local sailor, a former student at Kingston High School, will spend a 14-day leave with his parents before reporting to the U. S. Naval Base at Norfolk, Va., for duty.

Seaman Tubby successfully completed the transition from civilian to military life which included instruction in seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, firefighting, military bearing, military drill and citizenship.

The Kingston Bluejacket enlisted in the navy through the local Navy Rrecruiting Station, Room 209, Central Post Office for a four-year period.

Thomas on Leave

Henry E. Thomas, interior communication electrician second class, U. S. Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, 50 West Pierpont street, is spending a 30-day leave with his parents. The local bluejacket is attached to the Aircraft Carrier USS Bennington, which recently returned from a cruise in Far Eastern waters. While on the Far Eastern tour the Bennington visited ports in Japan, Manila, Philippine Islands, Hong Kong, Australia and Honolulu, Hawaii.

Memoriam

In loving memory Henry L. Krum who passed away one year ago June 5, 1956.
His smiling way and pleasant face,
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.

Memoriam

In loving memory Henry L. Krum who passed away one year ago June 5, 1956.
Those whom we love go out of sight,
But never out of mind,
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they leave behind.
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days,
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.

Grand Jury May Get Van Horn Case Monday

Towson, Md., June 5 (AP) — A grand jury probably will be asked Monday to return a murder indictment against socialite Robert J. Van Horn in the slaying of his wife.

Attorneys for the 52-year-old lumber company president waived preliminary hearing yesterday. State's Atty. Frank H. Newell III said the case would be taken directly to the Baltimore county grand jury, but declined to say when.

State Sen. John Grason Turnbull, one of Van Horn's attorneys, said he expected the case would be presented to the jury Monday, its next regularly scheduled meeting day.

Meanwhile, the battered body of 53-year-old Bernice Ward Van Horn has been released by police for funeral services.

Police said Van Horn has admitted arguing with his wife following a party Saturday night.

Advise Permanent State Atomic Council

Albany, N. Y., June 5 (AP) — Twenty-three persons active in the nuclear industrial field have proposed creation of a permanent state atomic energy council.

The group, known as the State Atomic Energy Advisory Committee, took the action yesterday at a meeting with the temporary council on the use of neculear materials, comprised of state officials.

The premanent council would coordinate and regulate the peacetime uses of atomic energy in the state. The temporary council now carries out those duties.

The advisory committee said it would seek legislative approval in 1958 of a bill to make the council permanent. A similiar bill was introduced at Gov. Harriman's request at the 1957 session but did not come to a vote.

Several committee members said unless the state took action on peacetime use of atomic energy the whole field may go to the federal government by default.

Grange, Federal Suit Underway Over Building

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The National Grange and the federal government are engaging in a court fight over the farm organization's headquarters office building here.

The government wants the property, which is located a block away from the White House, for additional space for its workers.

The grange, on the other hand, wants to keep the property which it says serves "as a hub for conferences, rural activities and farm progress."

The government has filed condemnation proceedings—an action the grange is seeking to thwart in Federal Court. It argues that the government does not need the property, that it has not been authorized by Congress to acquire it and that the government is offering a price that is "close to robbery."

It has been offered $360,000 for the property. Grange officials said it earlier had been offered a million dollars.

The grange is asking its members and friends to appeal to Congress to save the headquarters.

Elsworth Signs Show Cause Order On Phone Action

Supreme Court Justice Roscoe V. Elsworth has signed an order to show cause why Justice of the Peace William P. Malloy of the town of Shandaken should not enter judgment in favor of Lowell R. Dutcher against the New York Telephone Company. The show cause order is returnable on Friday at special term of Supreme Court.

Thomas L. Browne, counsel for Dutcher, secured the show cause order when he alleges by affidavit that Justice of the Peace Malloy "refused to enter judgment" when there was no appearance in his court on behalf of the telephone company when the case came before the justice's court.

Dutcher originally brought an action against the New York Telephone Company for damages which he alleged he sustained when the telephone company sprayed along its line and killed trees owned by Dutcher in Fox Hollow. When a settlement out of court was not secured Dutcher last November sued in justice's court and obtained a judgment of $250. That judgment was appealed by the telephone company to the Ulster County Court on the law. Judge Bruhn sent the matter back to justice's court for retrial.

At the time of trial Attorney Browne appeared for plaintiff Dutcher. There was no appearance by the telephone company and Browne moved for judgment on behalf of Dutcher. Justice Malloy declined to enter judgment and the mandamus action was commenced, the order to show cause why judgment should not be directed was secured and the matter will be heard now at special term Friday.

Missionary Will Speak Thursday In Saugerties

The Rev. Don Hall of Lanesboro, Pa., missionary to Nigeria, West Africa under the Sudan Interior Mission, will be the speaker at First Baptist Church, Saugerties, June 6 at 7:45 p. m.

The Rev. Mr. Hall is a native of Pennsylvania and received his training for the ministry at the Practical Bible Training School and the Baptist Bible Seminary both of Johnson City, N. Y. The Rev. and Mrs. Hall have served a part of a term in Nigeria independently and are returning under the Sudan Interior Mission, one of the world's faith boards which has today over twelve hundred missionaries and has reached over 200 tribes with the Gospel.

His ministry consisted of managing a Christian book store, Evangelism and Bible teaching among English speaking Africans in the city of Kaduna, capital of Northern Nigeria.

The Rev. Mr. Hall has had profitable ministries in America in Children's work and the Evangelistic field, and is now seeking to make known the needs in Africa, prior to his return.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

No Council Action

homes, and through increased use of parking meters (now $50,000 a year).

Yet, he held, the city was laying off men and trucks.

The Williams' claim for $5,000 was filed by Attorney Thomas F. Saccoman. It noted that a truck of the State Fish Co., of Kingston, struck a hole or defect in the street near the Williams' place, went out of control and crashed through the front of the apartment.

Petition for Zone Change

A petition for a zoning change, filed by Mary A. Guido, of 250 Hurley avenue, was referred to the laws and rules committee. It was signed by 27 residents of the area, and noted that the Hurley avenue property would be used for "antiques and home decorating."

Petitions were filed for repair of Kiersted avenue in the second ward, and for improvement of Arlmont street. The first bore 22 names, and the second 12. Conditions were reported as "intolerable" on Kiersted avenue, and Alderman William A. Davis, (R) 11th ward, noted that conditions on Arlmont street were hazardous in respect to police and fire protection.

Radel Resolutions

Radel's resolution pertinent to unemployment insurance, felt that while increasing benefits, a recent law descriminated against small and seasonal businesses, such as construction and resort enterprises, apparel manufacturers and canneries.

His resolution on workmen's compensation felt that certain changes would cause financial hardships to injured workers through judicial delay in payment in benefits. The other on increased telephone rates, noted that a handful of members in the Senate Finance Committee prevented action on it, and he proposed backing to prevent raised rates.

Each resolution asked that the council notify Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson and Senator E. Ogden Bush, the president of the senate and speaker of assembly of support of the measures as requested by Gov. Harriman.

Radel held that Schwenk was unfair in not permitting a committee recess on the proposal so that action on the resolutions could be forwarded as proposed before June 10.

Schwenk held that the measures were wholly the concern of state legislators in behalf of the people of the state, and he said he suspected a political motive in the attempt to gain council action on them.

Views Conflict

ban areas without regard for county boundaries.

Another witness, however, urged that town boundaries be frozen by the state constitution.

William K. Sanford, assistant counsel of the Association of Towns, declared that towns "are no longer the cow pastures of government."

Sanford also recommended that annexation of towns by larger cities be left to the discretion of town boards after public hearings.

Would Modernize Government

William B. Lawless, president of the common council in Buffalo, called for revisions that would permit the modernization of county government.

"It is a time," he said, "when we desperately need a state constitutional convention to revise the laws that permit duplications of government as they do in Erie county."

Lawless also suggested that the state legislature split its annual session into two parts. He said a split session would permit ample public scrutiny of proposed legislation before final action was taken by the lawmakers.

Makes Schools Proposal

Dr. Howard Seymour, Rochester superintendent of schools, called for changes that would permit five large cities in the state to "acquire fiscal responsibility and independence" for their education departments.

Seymour who said he was also speaking for the school departments in Buffalo and Syracuse, said voters in the "big five" cities, including Albany and Yonkers, should be allowed to determine their own education budgets.

He said the five cities now had only "frustratingly partial responsibility."

Hits Finance Setup

"These boards of education are given the responsibility," he said, "but not the purse strings. The present system makes no sense. The education budget is in the hands of one agency and the operation in another."

Seymour suggested amending Article Eight of the Constitution to give the five cities the power to set their own tax and debt limits in raising funds for education.

A spokesman for AFL-CIO organizations in the Buffalo area, James Millich, said that voters in Erie county were not fairly represented in the legislature. He called the apportionment of Assembly seats inadequate. As an example, Millich cited a seat in Schuyler county which he said represents 15,000 persons compared to a seat in Erie county representing 125,000.

Bus Ditched, No Injuries

Elizabethtown, N. Y., June 5 (AP) — Twenty-five passengers aboard a Montreal-New York greyhound bus that slipped backward into a ditch escaped injury, the bus line says. The vehicle slid into the ditch early yesterday along Route 9, north of this Adirondack village. The dispatcher at the Albany Greyhound terminal said none of the passengers claimed injuries. He said the baggage door of the bus was the only part damaged. The passengers were transferred to another bus.

Towing Firm Sues UMW for $650,000

Baltimore, June 5 (AP) — District 50 of the United Mine Workers and six individuals have been named in a $650,000 damage suit filed by the Curtis Bay Towing Co.

Named in the suit filed in Superior Court yesterday were four employes of the towing company, the union and two of its officials.

Curtis Bay Towing blamed the union for what it termed an illegal strike and said the company had suffered great monetary loss while being prevented from filling its contracts.

The company said it has a collective bargaining agreement with Local 1510 of the International Longshoremen's Assn., which expires June 30, containing a no-strike clause and setting up a procedure for settling grievances.

Despite the agreement, the towing company said, the UMW union claimed to be the bargaining agent for the firm's captains, mates and engineers and has sought to force recognition of the union.

Cases Before County Court

Bernard Brown, 23, of Montgomery, who was born a Siamese twin and successfully underwent an operation with his sister, received a suspension of any sentence in County Court today when he entered a plea of guilty to unlawful entry. A count of burglary, third degree, was dismissed by County Judge Louis G. Bruhn.

Brown, a truckdriver, was involved in a burglary last December 8, when he went for a ride with his brother, Earl Brown, and other companions. Counsel for Brown told the court the defendant Bernard Brown had never been in difficulty before and did not know the purpose of the ride on which he was invited. Places in both Orange and Ulster county were entered but Bernard Brown did not retain any of the articles taken. In Orange county he received a suspended sentence and is now on probation for entrance to the Thruway Market. Brown is slightly deaf and had difficulty in understanding the statements made in court. Counsel said Brown had never been in difficulty before, was a hard working young man but had the misfortune to have been led astray.

Judge Bruhn dismissed the first count of the indictment and exonerated bail.

Frederick Stanley Bollen, 52, New Paltz, entered a plea of guilty to disorderly conduct and imposition of any sentence was suspended. Bail was exonerated and a count of leaving the scene of an accident was dismissed. Norman Kellar appeared for defendant.

Michael Thomas Burke, charged with illegal possession of a pistol, alleged to have taken place April 4, 1957, was arraigned by Assistant District Attorney Joseph Torraca and a plea of innocent was entered. Charles Saccoman appeared and asked for 20 days to make motions pertaining to the indictment and continuance of bail. Granted.

Byron Pudy, 17, was arraigned on two charges, sodomy, alleged to have been committed on March 9, 1957, and also burglary, third degree, and unlawful entry, alleged to have been committed March 22, 1957, for entrance to the Nelson Christiana building. Charles Saccoman appeared for defendant, a plea of innocent was entered to both indictments, 20 days was granted for motions and bail was continued.

Kenneth Edward Palmatier appeared in court and his case was put over to Monday, June 10, at 2 p. m. for arraignment. Charles Saccoman appeared for defendant and informed the court that Palmatier was deaf and it would be necessary to have an interpetrer in court to inform the defendant of any court action or charge. Judge Bruhn granted that application and continued bail. Palmatier was not arraigned.

Several cases were moved over to Monday, June 10, at 2 p. m.

A grand larceny, first degree, charge against Kenneth Long was announced ready for trial by The People and will be taken up following trial of a civil action now on trial. Bernard Feeney appears for Long.

A jury was selected for trial of a contract action brought by Fred P. Hiersekorn and others against Piney Point, Inc. Robert A. MacKinnon for plaintiffs and Timmerman & Carlson for defendants.

Savory Smoke

Rustburg, Va. (AP)—The firemen were almost overcome with hunger, but they saved 50 hams. The fire started when a rafter broke in F. Merryman's smokehouse. Some of the 150 hams plunged into the fire over which they were being smoked. The aroma was delicious but the fat was in the fire and it blazed. The 50 hams saved were in an adjoining smokehouse and were the property of Ed Evans, Rustburg's high school basketball coach.

Morehouse Sure

he called "unjust" provisions attached to them.

The Democratic governor has indicated that he would reject the measures if they again win legislative approval.

Cites Liberal Party Chain

Another veto, said Morhouse, would show what he called Harriman's "subservience to Liberal party bosses."

Harriman declared in New York city Monday night that Republican leaders had used the "lie" technique in branding him a "captive" of the Liberal party or of the Garment Workers' Union.

In a statement replying to Harriman's protest, Morhouse contended that the garment industry "causes the heaviest drain" on the unemployment insurance fund.

He said the industry paid 10 million dollars a year into the fund while its employes drew 44 million in payments.

Harriman has recalled the GOP-controlled Legislature into special session Monday primarily to consider new measures raising the unemployment insurance and workmen's compensation benefits.

Insists on No Changes

He said his formal proclamation of recall was so worded that the lawmakers could consider raising benefits only, and could make no other changes in the laws.

The Legislature's GOP leaders have disputed Harriman's contention that he may borrow the subject matter in this fashion. They have vowed to pass the same bills Harriman rejected.

The special session may consider only those subjects specified by the governor.

Those Opposed

The GOP jobless-pay bill was opposed by the Liberal party, the garment industry and the Garment Workers Union because of a feature that would have raised the payroll tax on seasonal employers beyond that of other industries.

Harriman, in his veto message, noted that opposition also had come from the construction and canning industries.

The Republican compensation bill would have broadened court review of compensation awards. This proposal met with general opposition from organized labor.

8 DeMott Parcels Bring $45,850 in Court House Sale

Eight parcels of property in the estate of the late Anna DeMott were sold this morning at the Ulster county courthouse for a total of $45,850.

Approximately 50 persons were present in the Board of Supervisors room for the public sale supervised by Joseph Avis, attorney for the Kingston Trust Company, administrator of the estate.

Parcels and buyers:

Parcel No. 1, 177-179 Wall street, Mrs. Lee Freeman of Port Ewen, $9,700. Rooming house of 14 rooms and three baths.

Parcel No. 2, 132-136 Smith avenue, Timothy Doyle of Kingston, $10,000. Two-family dwelling, corner lot, five rooms and lavatory on each floor.

Parcel No. 3, 47-49 Cedar street, Rudolph Tuschkan of Kingston, $4,900. Three-family old Schermerhorn property.

Parcel No .4, 58-60 Cedar street, Christopher Rienzo, $8,050. Lodging house, 20 rooms.

Parcel No. 5, consisting of four properties as follows: 35 Farrelly street, five-room, two-story dwelling; 106-108 Gage street, two family dwelling, five rooms each; 110 Gage street, two-family dwelling, three rooms each, and 112-118 Gage street, two-family house, three rooms each, two-story frame, Mr. Doyle, $9,000.

Parcel No. 6, 102-104 Gage street, Martha Scanlon of Kingston, $650. Vacant lot 50 by 125 feet.

Parcel No. 7, 53-55 Gage street, Hydrecht Armstrong, $1,050. Vacant lot 50 by 148 feet.

Parcel No. 8, 57 Gage street, Mr. Armstrong, $2,500. Two-story frame, two-family dwelling with six rooms and lavatory on first floor and six rooms and bath on second floor.

The premises were first sold together, then each of the parcels separately. The top bid for all eight parcels together was $33,500 by R. E. Craft, Kingston realtor. The total of separate sales, however, was more than the single bid and the separate sales were honored.

No End of Tests

said yesterday the party is having "some difficulty" obtaining funds from previous large contributors because of the size of the administration's spending program. Eisenhower replied somewhat sharply that it might be better for some who are complaining about the budget to look up the facts instead of listening to partisan speeches.

Eisenhower then put a rhetorical question himself, asking what the size of the budget would be today if some members of the political opposition—the Democrats—had been able to put over some of the programs they had advocated in the past.

Eisenhower added that Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek promptly apologized for the rioting and shouldered blame for the incident.

China Trade

China Trade—Discussing Britain's recent relaxation of restrictions on its trade with Communist China, Eisenhower said there are sharp differences among Americans as to whether this country should follow suit. The differences, he went on, involve an evaluation of the value of such trade.

The main point at issue, Eisenhower said, is whether there should be one set of restrictions on trade with Russia, and another tighter set of restrictions dealing with trade with Red China.

New York, June 5 (AP) — Tobaccos took losses while oils gained in a mixed stock market early this afternoon. Trading was slow.

Gains and losses of fractions to a point or so among pivotal stocks were the general rule.

The tobacco shares underwent some selling in a delayed reaction to the new report yesterday by the American Cancer Society linking cigarette smoking with lung cancer, heart disease and premature death from other causes.

U. S. Steel rose a fraction and Bethlehem was about unchanged.

Leading rails were mostly either unchanged or slightly off. Aircrafts were irregular.

On the American Stock Exchange, prices were irregularly higher in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds continued lower in quiet trading.

year obligation for streets which do not need capital improvement. He could not say, he noted, that the amount would be sufficient, but, if not, he said, he would request the council to "make more funds available" when, and if needed.

Roth, after noting that the city's 1957 budget was $2,335,665.36, with a tax rate of $57.24, cited a debt service amount of $520,554.44, which, he thought, was "high enough."

Fears 'Bankruptcy'

In two more years, he held, "this city will be bankrupt." He cited $25,750 requested for city planning (not yet approved) the $25,000 requested (last night) for street work, plus a requested $6,400 by the recreation department and $2,800 (both also last night) for a roller needed in street work.

The alderman also hit at "time-and-a-half for overtime" for public works employes, which was approved last night, and he noted that the fire department wants $75,000 for equipment and that the "city engineer needs more help." He then asked, "What goes on?"

What About Three?

Every cent of the $260,000 approved for street work last year was spent, Roth said, and 13 of 16 streets on the program were completed. He asked what happened to the other three, and noted that the aldermen were told that $35,000 would be used for "side streets" but, he held, none was done in his ward, and he asked, "How about others?"

Roth held that $15,000 wasn't spent on Abeel street, and again asked, "Where is the money?" He quoted the mayor as saying it was necessary "to rob Peter to pay Paul," and charged that a month ago Ernest A. Steuding, public works superintendent, said he could repair Abeel street for $9,000 less than contractor Berardi. Yet, he held, the original estimate was near $40,000. "Some manipulation," he said.

Roth charged that most all of the street-work money is gone and many streets in the 12th ward need repair. He said there was a hole in Lucas avenue near Merritt avenue about eight inches deep.

Criticizes Engineer

Noting that the city engineer requested more help, Roth said, he requested that the city engineer be on the job "eight hours a day, and he won't need extra help."

Roth said that in a recent talk with the mayor, the latter said, that he, Roth, was acting "like a big kid." This, he indicated, set him to going into files and citing figures which he read last night.

The alderman read figures to show effects of high taxes on industry and business in Michigan, he delved into machinery and maintenance costs, and appeared amused to find an item of $206 in a month for repair of broken window glass in city equipment, and another of $131.19 for parts of a truck.

Aldermen Roth, and Samuel J. Perry (R) fifth ward, voted against approval of the sum requested for repair of parks, but Roth's was the only dissenting vote on the proposal to table the bid for $25,000 to repair streets.

Conference Held

Heated argument followed a long recess during which City Engineer Arthur F. Hallinan and Public Works Superintendent Steuding were called in to confer with the aldermen. The recess, plus long argument, extended the meeting to 12:30 a. m. today.

Alderman Keyser, indicated the items as hurriedly compiled and presented by Roth, were considered "outrageous," by him (Keyser), and he suggested that if he has charges to make, based on the items mentioned, that he "come forward and make charges."

Asks Formal Charges

If such charges were formally made and substantiated, Keyser said, he would be willing to go along in whatever move might be found necessary.

"Mr. Keyser, would you be willing to back me up on that statement?" Roth asked.

Keyser replied, "If they are well founded, of course."

Alderman Radel said that he felt like Keyser that he would go along with Roth on the basis of proof, but he recalled the "budget fight" several months ago, when it was thought that Roth was with minority members in favoring certain budget cuts, "but the ultimate end was that we passed the budget on a party vote."

Went Against Principles

Roth then said that he went "against my principles, (on the budget vote) "and I won't do it again."

Keyser said, "I still say, if you can prove them out," (the Roth statements) "I'll go along." He then suggested to Roth that there be "no more flim-flam from the floor." If, he said, "we are going to continue this sort of charge, let's substantiate them."

Urges Chair to Act

Roth then made a statement indicating that Keyser was too directly influenced by the mayor, and McArdle then arose to ask that the chair, in the future, stop "any personal accusations" on the council floor, and not allow attack on personalities.

Alderman-at-large John Schwenk said he was in accord with the suggestion and that he would try to prevent recurrences in the future.

Alderman James K. Ryan (D) 10th ward proposed that the aldermen meet with the mayor to discuss the street work money requested, and that a special meeting be called for next Tuesday.

Asks Repairs Now

Alderman Keyser said he thought "time was of the essence," because streets needed repair and the work "should be done now." He felt it should not be made a political issue.

"This is not political," said Samuel J. Perry (R) fifth ward. "We gave $40,000. Where is it?" He told of his efforts to "get one hole patched," and said at one point he was told by Steuding that if he had anything to say to bring it up on the council floor.

William K. Bodenweber (D) ninth ward, said that since only $4,000 was spent on street repair in May, that the city should have enough to carry over until the next meeting. "It sure is pitiful," he said, "what you have got to go through to get a hole patched. When a man stands on a truck and throws the stuff in a hole, it's wasting material. They don't even tamp it."

Bodenweber held that nearly $100,000 was spent last year on street maintenance work, and this was almost "half as much" as was spent for capital improvements.

McArdle said that like Keyser, he felt that time was of the essence. The condition of the streets, he said, was "deplorable." They have resulted in claims and suits, he said, and noting that "it takes money to fix them," he asked "why are we to judge" how the work should be done.

Frank Zakseski, (D) fourth ward, said it is claimed that the streets are in the worst shape ever, and yet $30,000 has been spent. He asked what was done with it.

Keyser said that it might be interesting for the aldermen to get figures on street work from Newburgh and Poughkeepsie. Kingston, he indicated, has about 25 per cent of the money alloted for the work in those cities.

Aldermen Perry and Roth were the only two who did not vote for the money to be used to repair city parks. Mayor Stang asked $6,400 for repair of a fence at Block Park, for a cyclone fence along a play area on Greenkill avenue, two tennis courts for Forsyth Park, a basketball court at Loughran Park, for equipment and grading on a lot in the sixth ward, and for repair of the parking lot at Kingston Point beach.

The beach item was excluded in adoption of the measure approving money for park improvements.

Bodenweber said he could not "see spending money on a property which we don't own." McArdle, as a member of the finance committee said he would be willing to exclude the item for repairs at the beach.

Perry thought it was "a dirty trick" to reject bids for the beach concession and then publish the figures given. Bodenweber said he understood that the concession was operating after a "hassel" and he held that no figures had been published as to the amount of the accepted bid.

Perry wanted to know "Why are they charging 10 cents for the kids to go swimming." (It was reported today that there is no such charge, and that only those for parking and for non-residents, as published, are to be made)

Zakseski said he was opposed to the "fence" items for parks, because the one around Hasbrouck park "is falling away" for lack of paint.

Keyser, at one point in discussing Roth's lists of figures and statements referred to the saying, "figures don't lie, but liars figure." This, he later indicated, was not to have a personal implication where Roth was concerned.

This he apparently inteded to explain to Roth after the meeting, but Roth would not listen to him.

40 Per Cent More Cotton Demand Seen

Washington, June 4 (AP)—The Agriculture Department predicted today that domestic and foreign markets will take about 40 per cent more U. S. cotton this marketing year than last.

In a report on the cotton situation, the agency estimated that total disappearance of cotton for the sales year ending July 31 will amount to about 16¼ million bales. This compares with 11,400,000 last season.

Exports are running sharply larger than a year ago, but domestic use is a little smaller. Exports were forecast at 7½ million bales compared with 2,200,00 last year. Domestic use was forecast at 8¾ million bales compared with 9,200,000 last year.

Because production for the current marketing year was less than demand, surpluses will be reduced almost three million bales, the department said. The carryover of the old crop cotton on Aug. 1, the beginning of the 1957-crop marketing year, was forecast at 11,600,000 bales.

Investor Warned Against 'Boiler-Room' Sales Methods

ROGER E. SPEAR

Q—I now hold 12 shares of Continental Can, 20 shares of General Telephone Corp. and 15 shares of U. S. Steel. These shares have been accumulated over a period of 10 years through money saved regularly out of my monthly salary. I've been offered an opportunity to purchase stock of a new oil company at 90 cents a share which the salesman says should more than double in value as soon as the issue is listed on an exchange. If I am going to buy any of this stock I'll have to sell some of my present holdings. Which would you suggest I sell?

A—There is only one answer to your question. Sell none of your present holdings. Although you failed to mention the name of the oil company and we cannot, therefore, pass on its merits, the selling tactics of the salesman have all the earmarks of the old "boiler-room" technique. This opinion is based on the fact that he stated the stock should more than double in value as soon as it is listed on an exchange. You should note that he didn't say when it would be listed nor that application had been made for listing.

Up to now you have shown good judgment in selecting sound, dividend-paying equities. While, of course, there are many opportunities in the market for fairly sizable short-term profits, you should purchase this type of stock only with competent and experienced investment guidance, and recognizing the risk involved. Except under these circumstances, I advise you to continue on your present conservative course, strengthening your guard against nebulous promises of opportunities to make a "fast dollar."

GAINS FOR DRUG FIRMS FROM NEW TRANQUILIZERS

Q—I have read glowing stories on the future of tranquilizers and other mental illness "miracle" drugs. Do the companies which produce these drugs make good investments?

A—Yes, because the principal producers of these drugs are also well established in the expanding pharmaceutical business. There is, no doubt, a growing market for mental illness drugs which should benefit the earnings of these companies.

For example, Schering Corp., with a spectacular record of progress in the past five years, introduced Trilafon, a tranquilizer, early this year. Smith, Kline & French, another company with an excellent growth record in recent years, sells Thorazine, used widely in the treatment of nervous disorders. Eli Lilly, an important producer of Salk polio vaccine, makes the tranquilizers Sandril and mild-acting Ultran. American Home Products, manufacturer of a wide variety of drugs, both ethical and proprietary, as well as other household products, and with a good growth record, markets Sparine and Equanil. Pfizer has introduced the new tranquilizer, Atarax, and Warner Lambert, whose stock, incidentally, has advanced over 300 per cent in the past 5 years, has developed Pacatal.

TRUE OR FALSE?

Having made a purchase of a sound stock, particularly one that is regarded as a "growth" issue, an investor can lock his stock certificate in his strong box and forget about it.

FALSE.—An inexorable law of sound investment policy involves eternal vigilance regarding developments in connection with one's holdings. Although in recent years much has been heard about "growth" stocks which has whetted the interest of investors concerned with building an estate, many issues have been erroneously classified as belonging to this category. Also, many growth stocks, under consistent investor demand, have been bid up in market price beyond reasonable value.

Of course, if a stock of this latter type is that of a company which is going to continue to grow over a long period of time, it is quite likely that the issue will eventually sell higher than it is selling today, but this could be many years away. Meanwhile, the only reasonable investment procedure is to sell out this temporarily overvalued issue and switch into another good growth stock where the future has not been so fully discounted.

Some Who Have Accepted Graham To Help Others

New York, June 5 (AP)—Some of the men and women who have made "decisions for Christ" at Billy Graham meetings are going to give him a hand in trying to get others to do the same.

The evangelist told a crowd of 17,500 at Madison Square Garden last night that beginning Sunday, a succession of these individuals will take the platform with him each night to tell their stories.

"They will tell you of the revolution and change that Christ has brought in their lives," he said.

Starts Fourth Week

Graham tonight starts the fourth week of his New York crusade, now scheduled to run six more weeks. He said the opening phase has been "wonderful, glorious."

"We've seen God move here as we've never seen Him move in our ministry," Graham said. He urged Christians to get their non- religious friends to the services.

So far, attendance has totaled 374,500, with 12,864 of them responding to Graham's plea to "accept Christ." This is an average of 604 each night—the largest response Graham has ever had.

Effects Here Greater

A British churchman, the Rev. Stephen Olford, who has been helping Graham in the crusade and who also aided Graham's 1954 London crusade said effects here have been much greater.

"The Holy Spirit seems to be moving in a way never felt in London." he said.

In his sermon, the last in a series on the Ten Commandments, Graham preached on the subject, "Thou Shall Not Covet." He said Americans are flouting the Commandment by their grasping materialism.

Why "Good-Time Charlie" Suffers Uneasy Bladder

Such a common thing as unwise eating or drinking may be a source of mild, but annoying bladder irritations—making you feel restless, tense, and uncomfortable. And if restless nights, with nagging backache, headache or muscular aches and pains due to over-exertion, strain or emotional upset, are adding to your misery — don't wait — try Doan's Pills.

Doan's Pills have three outstanding advantages—act in three ways for your speedy return to comfort. 1—They have an easing soothing effect on bladder irritations. 2—A fast pain-relieving action on nagging backache, headaches, muscular aches and pains. 3—A wonderfully mild diuretic action thru the kidneys, tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes. So, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

World News in Brief

Girard Probe

Washington, June 5 (AP)—The U. S. decision to let Japan try an American soldier on homicide charges brought on a Senate investigation today along with promise of more to come.

Chairman Ervin (D-NC) summoned the Defense Department cournsel, Robert Dechert, before a closed meeting of an armed services subcommittee to determine "if the facts justified the action taken."

And Sen. Flanders (R-Vt.), his colleague on the two-member subcommittee, said that "we propose to find out who is responsible for this blunder."

New Floods Seen

Dallas, June 5 (AP)—Swollen by weeks of rain, sprawling Lake Texoma poured torrents of water down the wandering Red river today, threatening floods in Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Army engineers said Texoma, which sits astride the Texas-Oklahoma border north of here, would crest at Denison, Tex., dam at 643.5 or 644 feet above sea level sometime tomorrow or Friday. The flood control pool is 640 feet and the reading last night was 642.

Aid Bill Due

Washington, June 5 (AP)—Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said today the Senate Foreign Relations Committee probably will complete action this weekend on a new foreign aid bill.

Mansfield, a committee member and assistant Democratic floor leader, predicted President Eisenhower's request for $3,865,000,000 in new spending authority would be cut by "several hundred million dollars."

And he and other members of the committee forecast a "rewriting" of the administration-drafted foreign aid bill to keep both authorizations and appropriations "subject to the usual annual review by congressional committees."

152 Rebels Slain

Algiers, June 5 (AP) — French military authorities announced today 152 nationalist rebels have been killed in a series of three battles in this revolt-torn land. They acknowledged French casualties of 16 soldiers dead and 15 wounded.

Rebel sabotage and isolated attacks cost the lives of seven other persons in Algeria.

At the same time two North Africans were killed and a half dozen wounded in clashes between rival Algerian factions in European France. The bulk of this trouble stemmed from scattered strikes staged by Algerian workers in industrial plants of northern France to protest the massacre of 302 of their countrymen at the village of Melouza.

Buchman Pinned

sistant pastor of St. Joseph's Church, and the Rev. Edward I. Farrelly, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church.

Reportedly Lost Control

Buckman, traveling south on Route 28, lost control of his car, police said, when entering the Esopus creek bridge, hit a pillar, went to the right side of the span and overturned, pinning him in the car for one hour and 47 minutes.

Nichols and Cox were removed to Kingston Hospital by Schultz ambulance while the dangerous work of removing Buckman from the wreckage proceeded.

Dr. McNamara climbed in the car and stayed with Buckman until he was extricated, police reported. A blotter notation at 2:35 a. m. said the physician had ordered blood plasma from Kingston Hospital.

Feet Pinned Under Dash

It was noted at 3:06 a. m. that Buckman "was freed" from the car and removed to Benedictine Hospital by Schultz ambulance after it was necessary to cut part of the post running along side of the front door and loosening the seat so it could be removed as his feet were pinned underneath the dashboard.

Rescuers also had to cut the steering wheel. A cuttting bar and hacksaw were used in place of an acetylene torch as "gasoline was all over the road," the report noted.

Also at the scene were Officers Louis Sapp Jr., and off-duty officers Bruce Clarke, Bernard Fowler, William Snyder and Edward Edwards who, the report said, assisted in removing Buckman from the wreckage. Lt. Charles Hoehing directed operations for assistance from police headquarters.

Others who assisted at the scene included County Investigator Arthur H. Brown and Deputies Thomas Mayone and Fred Brinkman. It was also noted by police that George Murphy assisted police and firemen.

Troopers Joseph Strunk and Jack Montgomery of the state police Thruway detail also were at the scene.

The fire department received a call from police headquarters at 1:22 a. m. when the danger of spilled gasoline was cited and Engine 3 from Wiltwyck Station, under the direction of Deputy Chief George Matthews responded.

Deputy Chief Matthews summoned the Wiltwyck Rescue Truck, under the direction of Foreman Orville Kimbark at 1:45 a. m.

The accident scene was cleared at 3:45 a. m.

The Department of Public Works was called to sand the roadway and a call was put in to the state highway department to inspect the bridge.

CONSTIPATED?

New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge-that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be remoistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONAID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONAID's great moisturizing capacity, plus COLONAID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONAID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Court Hears Two

plea yesterday, by reason of insanity.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Van Dusen testified that Williams gained admittance to Mrs. Davis' home by posing as a charity collector. They said he forced them and Mrs. Chase at gunpoint into Mrs. Chase's automobile.

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Van Dusen said they leaped from the car moments after it started, with Mrs. Chase at the wheel, the gun pointed at her head.

Police Claim Admission

State police have said that Williams had admitted in a signed statement that he raped Mrs. Chase in a farmhouse near Jefferson, Schoharie county, then let her go.

Williams was arrested later when a state trooper became suspicious of the car he was driving on country roads to avoid roadblocks.

Maximum penalties on conviction range from 25 years to life for kidnaping, 20 years for first-degree robbery and 5 years for illegal possession of a weapon.

CONFIRMED AT TEMPLE—Eight boys and girls were confirmed in a special service held at Temple Emanuel on Tuesday, with Rabbi Herbert I. Bloom and Cantor Julian Lohre presiding. Certificates were presented to the confirmands by Dr. Saul Goldfarb. In the photo are Helen Svirsky, Bonnie Streifer, Pamela Moak, Beth Kletske, Ned Goldfarb, Raphael Warshaw, Peter Leeds, Terry Kalish, Rabbi Bloom and Cantor Lohre. A reception was held in the social hall of the Temple following the service. (Freeman photo) who have passed away. This is as it should be," said Dr. Bloom.

"However, according to the principles enunciated by our sages a teacher is greater than a father. Whatever small contribution I have made to the moral, religious and educational betterment of Kingston during the almost 25 years that I have occupied a pulpit here, I owe in large degree to the teachings, inspiration, and guidance of my distinguished mentor, the late Rabbi Stephen S. Wise," continued the Kingston rabbi.

His Teachings Live On

"One outstanding reward of a great teacher is being able to live on through his disciples. I feel that Dr. Wise's beneficent influence has been made manifest in Kingston because of my residence and work here as well as that of many of his other pupils during all these years," he concluded.

The Rev. Dr. Bloom, a distinguished clergyman in his own right was called to the pulpit of Temple Emanuel in 1933. Since that time he devoted himself to community as well as religious matters. A past president of the Kingston Lions he worked indegfatigably for the establishment of the Kingston Cerebral Palsy Clinic. In addition to his pastoral duties in this city he has served as chaplain at several of the penal institutions in the Hudson valley.

The campaign for the new Temple Emanuel was formally opened on May 16 at a kick-off rally at the present temple on Abeel street. It will end on June 16.

Schirick Excuses Juror With Mumps

Troy, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Asked why he wanted to be excused from jury duty, this man had a sure-fire reason:

"Mumps," he told Justice Harry E. Schirick of State Supreme Court.

"Stand back, you're excused," Schirick countered.

The United States army will celebrate its 182nd birthday on June 14, 1957.

Guided Missile Crashes

Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., June 5 (AP)—A navy Regulus 11 guided missile went out of control yesterday and crashed on the Mojave Desert with a tremendous explosion, sending into the air what observers called "a miniature atomic cloud." The 33-foot supersonic missile, designed to be fired from submarines and warships, did not carry a warhead, however, a navy spokesman said. No one was hurt and no facilities were damaged. The missile, launched from here, crashed on a test range of the Navai Ordnance Test Station, China Lake, about 70 miles away.

Ready for the Summer shopping stampede?

June, July and August are busting out all over—in sales. Last year summer retail sales were $1,400,000,000 more than spring sales. Summer sales gains in 1956 over 1955 were 32% greater than gains for the average quarter for the rest of the year.*

Summertime is shopping time because shopping's easier. Days are longer and the weather is better. Our booming economy has given more people more money to spend. Last year civilian employment averaged an unprecedented 65 million and went as high as 66.8 million at the seasonal peak in the summer!*

Daily newspaper circulation is highest ever, too—now up over 57,000,000. And, important for advertisers—it remains practically constant throughout the year. There is no summer replacement for the newspaper!

Each summer more and more advertisers—national, regional and local—are rushing their ads into newspapers to take advantage of the surge in summer buying. Make sure you get your share of summer sales. Use the daily newspaper this summer—all summer.

All business is local...and so are all newspapers.

Children of War Dead Urged to Act on Schools

Now is the time for young men and women to start taking action if they intend to enroll in school or college in the fall under the Federal War Orphans Education Program, according to the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and Howard Shurter, director of the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency.

The program is for the sons and daughters of war veterans who died of injuries or diseases resulting from their military service in World War 1, World War 2 or the Korean Conflict.

"Here are two reasons for early action," said Mr. Shurter. "First, students will have plenty of time to arrange for admittance this fall to the college of their choice. Many colleges, particularly the larger ones, are crowded, and a delay to the last minute can result in the disappointment of learning that there's no room. Second, prompt action can result in speedier service with all the preliminaries out of the way before the rush at enrollment time begins."

While there are certain exceptions, a war orphan student generally must be between the ages of 18 and 23 and planning to enroll in an institution of higher learning. He or she may receive up to $110 a month assistance from the Federal Government for each month in school up to 36 months of schooling.

Interested persons who have any question about their eligibility or desire further information and assistance in applying for this benefit should get in touch as soon as possible with the State Division of Veterans Affairs and the Ulster County Veterans Service Agency office at 32 Main street, Kingston or any of the branch offices at Ellenville, Highland, Kerhonkson and Saugerties.

Jacobson's Store Air Conditioned, Rear Enlarged

Jacobson's Men's Shop at 39 John street has been air conditioned for the comfort of customers and an addition at the rear of the store has increased the size of the store by nearly one quarter.

Kingston's oldest men's clothing and accessory store, established in 1888, Jacobson's has been located at 39 John street since 1946. Prior to that the Messers. Jacobson conducted a business on lower Broadway.

Space formerly used for storage and a workshop at the rear of the store has been added to the sales-floor to accommodate increased business. New clothing show cases have been installed and additional facilities added to better serve customers. Approximately 600 square feet of space has been added to the store.

Since the business was established in 1888 Jacobson's have been selling quality clothing and handle famous nationally advertised brands of men's clothing and accessories.

Monticello Woman Is Found Innocent

Elizabeth, N. J., June 5 (AP)—Mrs. Stella D. Contos, 22, of 10 Lake St., Monticello, N. Y., was found innocent yesterday of a charge that she helped embezzle $11,840 from a Hillside auto firm.

A witness for Mrs. Contos was Clair H. Williams, 48, now serving a one-to-three year sentence in state prison after pleading no defense April 26 to a charge he embezzled the money from Gordon P. Fischer Inc.

Williams, a former manager for the concern, said that Mrs. Contos did not know of the theft and he contradicted the state's contention that she "doctored" records to hide embezzlements between Dec. 1, 1954 and Jan. 3, 1956.

A Union County jury deliberated only 13 minutes in arriving at the verdict.

Two Cars Damaged In Kripplebush Crash

A two-car collision on Main street, Kripplebush, early Tuesday night was investigated by the Ulster county sheriff's office.

Deputy Sheriff Peter Peterson reported that cars involved were a 1956 sedan operated by George A. Oates, 39, of Accord, and a 1951 sedan operated by Julian VanDenBergh, 37, of 3 Williams street.

The VanDenBergh vehicle was reportedly parked on the wrong side of the road facing east. Mr. Oates approached, traveling in a westerly direction. As he came near the parked car he applied his brakes to avoid an oncoming vehicle and skidded into the VanDenBergh car.

No injuries were reported. The time was 7:05 p. m.

Mexico City—Will the next New Look be the Aztec Look? It will if Mexican designers have anything to say about it. They're going back to Aztec days 10 centuries ago for "new" designs in dresses, textiles and colors. A dress fair late this year will feature the Aztec Look.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

The Catskill Mountain Star of May 29, 1957, printed in Saugerties, was brought to my attention because the front page had an excellent photo of our Clermont replica which fell apart in our Kingston Point lagoon. This write up and picture are all in the commemoration of the 150th Anniversary of the first voyage of Robert Fulton's Clermont and of course it was also the 135th anniversary of the Hudson River Dayline Co. I wonder how many readers saw the Peter Stuyvesant go past Kingston Point. I saw it in two places, from Kingston Point Park and from the beach and saw it go under our new bridge. Very pretty sight. I was not alone in the thrilling experience. There were 20 autos at the beach and folks were enjoying the beach, some in bathing suits. No doubt some youngsters saw the Hudson steamboat type for the first time in their lives. They did stop at Poughkeepsie and Newburgh and for a brief stop at Tivoli and then to Albany and return to New York.

According to The Catskill Mt. Star they had published a letter from Captain Paul Brink of Texas, "who noted that 50 years ago, on the 100th anniversary of Fulton's first steam voyage up the Hudson, his father, Captain Chester Brink, piloted a replica of the "Clermont." Mrs. William Thorpe of Catskill brought forth the excellent photo of the Clermont with sail up, people aboard and really moving. It seems she has a collection of old river pictures.

Like made mention in this column before, anniversary events of this sort bring out a lot of forgotten and otherwise unknown information and perhaps pictures.

Mrs. Thorpe in the above paper tells about the "Clermont" picture being taken off Catskill Point, and another vessel to the right being a U. S. Navy vessel of Spanish-American War vintage. . . . The Clermont replica (which was let to fall apart in the lagoon of Kingston Point) back in 1909 navigated the Hudson under her own steam in the triumphal procession that went as far north as Troy in September and October, 1909. "For that celebration, river communities all along the way decked themselves lavishly; and at the Manhattan end, the "Half-Moon" and the "Clermont" paraded through an imposing lane of 78 warships of the United States and several foreign lands, all firing salutes from their big guns. Governor Charles E. Hughes spoke at every port."

Item further continues in part: "The Half-Moon was entrusted for safekeeping to the city of Cohoes, where it was burned by vandals 20 odd years ago. The "Clermont" was sold in 1910 by the State Hudson-Fulton Commission to the Hudson River Day Line for $2,361.85 in cash and repairs, and the company agreeing to "maintain, care for, exhibit, and, when practicable, operate" the vessel, "as an object lesson in the science of steam navigation."

Item reads on: "The Day Line staked down the "Clermont" as a prime attraction in the lagoon off Kingston Point Park, to which it used to run excursions. The stack was sold for junk, the machinery was bought by Henry Ford for his Dearborn museum, and the ship itself eventually fell apart at its anchorage."

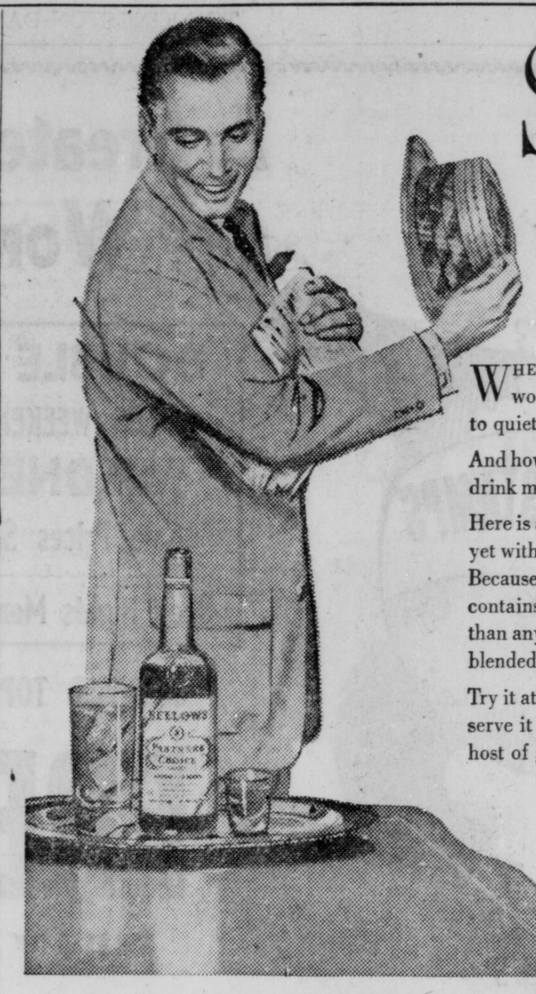

I wonder what the Peter Stuyvesant of 1957 and its crew of some 60 in costumes of the "Clermont" days with Andy Devine as honorary Captain would have done if our Clermont had been "maintained, cared for, on exhibition, and when practicable, operate" by sail and steam, as agreement read. No doubt there would have been quite a celebration at our pier. There was excitement up in Albany, and no doubt some at Poughkeepsie and Newburgh. All I hear is how to bring more people to Kingston, well, I understand, Plymouth, Mass. where the Half-Moon will be exhibited, expect several million people over the summer.

No Time to Think Engineer Declares

Buffalo, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—The president of the American Society of Civil Engineers declared today that most people no longer take time to think.

Mason G. Lockwood of Houston, Tex., said that in the competitive pressures of the times "speed has crowded reflective thought very nearly out of our lives."

Lockwood, in an address prepared for delivery at the society's annual convention, said that "in this age pure thinking is an almost complete casualty — as much so as walking or reading good literature.

"The newer influences," he continued, "tend to reject or to obviate or depreciate contemplation. We have done little to resist the currents which have swept us along the path of diminishing individual thought."

Briefly Told

Schenectady, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—From now on undressed swimming definitely is illegal here because the city council has dressed up a nude bathing ordinance.

The half-century-old law said it was unlawful to swim in any canal, river or pond between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m., except in a proper swimming suit. This suggested that nude bathing was proper during other hours.

The council deleted the phrase "between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m."

Sidney, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Employment at the Scintilla Magneto Division plant of the Bendix Aviation Corp. has reached a postwar high of 4,851, the company reports.

The previous high was 4,864 in January 1954.

The company magazine "The Scintillator," in an article yesterday, said completion of the first part of a four-year expansion program in August could result in the hiring of an additional 500 workers. An employment rise of 1,000 is expected by 1961, the article said.

The plant in this western Catskill community makes aircraft magnetos and electrical connectors.

New York, June 5 (AP)—Steel output in July may dip to the lowest point in nearly three years, except for strike periods, Iron Age said today.

The national metalworking weekly added August may not be much better than July "but September is expected to reverse the tend."

"With many steel companies shut down by vacations, it looks as though July steel output will drop below 80 per cent of capacity, Iron Age said.

"The expected pick up in September," the magazine said, "is based largely on the probable comeback in automotive ordering.

Craft-Mergendahl Wedding Is Announced; Couple Plan to Make Home in Connecticut

Miss Jacquelyn Jane Craft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Craft of West Hurley, was married to William D. Mergendahl, son of the late Mrs. Frances Lowe Burhans of Kingston.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger at St. John's Church Sunday, May 26 at 2 p. m.

For the occasion, the church was decorated with white carnations and spring flowers.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a waltz length lace and tulle gown featuring a scalloped Sabrina neckline, short sleeves with lace mitts to match. Her crown was of mother-of-pearl orange blossoms with a chapel length imported French silk illusion veil. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and showers.

Patricia Lee Craft, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a dotted tulle gown over lilac with pleated bodice and back interest of flowers set into a lilac taffeta sash. Her crown was of lilac braid flowers set in with pearl trim on a short veil. She carried a nosegray of yellow carnations and lilac daisies with yellow ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marletta McNally of West Hurley and Miss Catherine Grunenwald of Kingston. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor except in yellow and carried nosegrays of lilac carnations.

Lawrence Reer of Kingston was the best man. Serving as ushers were Thomas McNally of West Hurley, James DeAngelis, Douglas Stewart and Harry Lowe.

Following the church ceremony, a reception for 80 guests was held at the Alpine Hotel which was decorated with spring flowers.

The bride's mother wore a pink silk suit and a corsage of pink roses.

For her wedding trip to Washington, D. C., the bride wore a silk print sheath with beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Kingston High School.

When they return from their trip, they will reside in Hartford, Conn., where the bridegroom is employed by Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Corp.

Mary Dunn, Ronald Morse Wed June 2; Couple to Make Windham Their Home

MR. AND MRS. RONALD MORSE
(Tom Reynolds photo)

Miss Mary Margaret Dunn, daughter of Mrs. Richard Dunn of 70 Garden street and the late Mr. Dunn, became the bride of Ronald Francis Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Morse of Windham, Sunday, June 2, at St. Mary's Church.

Officiating for the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Francis X. Toner.

Theodore Riccobono was at the organ and Miss Patricia Keefe sang. Angelo Corrado also sang.

Vases of gladioli, baby's breath and palms decorated the church for the occasion.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Richard. For her wedding she wore a gown of white nylon sheer with an all-over pattern of embroidery fashioned with a molded long torso, abbreviated sleeves and a bouffant skirt. The skirt back was tiered and featured an aisle wide sweep train. A princess crown of delicate lace secured the fingertip French illusion veil.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and swansonia centered with a white orchid.

Miss Elizabeth A. Dunn of 70 Garden street, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of mint nile taffeta styled with a portrait neckline, short sleeves and a full mezzanine length skirt. On her head she wore a band of tulle leaves to which was attached a circular tulle veil.

Serving as flower girl was Miss Elizabeth Leahy, niece of the bride. She wore a gown of white nylon sheer over a maize taffeta slip fashioned with a fitted bodice, wide collar and a full skirt worn over hoops. She also wore a tiny crown of roses in her hair.

The flower girl carried a small basket of mixed flowers.

Richard Morse of Windham, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers included William Quinn of Windham and Robert Scott of Rochester.

Thomas Leahy was the child ringbearer.

Following the church wedding, a reception was held at The Alpine for approximately 120 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston High School and State University Teachers College, Potsdam. She is director of vocal music at Hunter-Tannersville Central School, Tannersville.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Windham High School, is Postmaster in Windham.

For her wedding trip to Virginia, the bride wore a light grey summer suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple will make their home in Windham when they return.

Chamber Music Series In Staatsburg Museum To Begin Saturday

For the eighth successive year, the Ogden Mills Museum in the Mills State Park at Staatsburg, will be the scene of three outstanding musical events, beginning June 8. The Hudson Valley Chamber Music Circle, whose co-chairmen are Mrs. Lydig Hoyt of Staatsburg and Mrs. Chanler A. Chapman of Barrytown, has announced plans for the 1957 summer season, which include concerts at the Museum on the evenings of June 8, July 27 and Sept. 21. These are all Saturdays, and the programs will begin promptly at 8:30 p. m.

On June 8 the Beaux Arts Trio will appear in a program consisting of Haydn's G Major Trio, Beethoven's "Archduke" Trio, and Schubert's Trio in B Flat.

BEAUX ARTS TRIO

The members of the organization are Daniel Guilet, violin, Bernard Greenhouse, cello, and Menahem Pressler, piano. The group has been playing together professionally since their joint debut at Tanglewood, Mass., in the summer of 1955, although each musician enjoys a worldwide reputation in his own right. Mr. Guilet was for 10 years Arturo Toscanini's concert-master in the NBC Symphony, and currently holds that post with the Symphony of the Air. Mr. Greenhouse's sensational debut in 1946 was followed by two years of study with Pablo Casals, the greatest living cellist, while Mr. Pressler, youngest of the group, made his debut at the age of 17 with the Philadelphia Orchestra after winning the Debussy Prize, an international competition in piano.

Coming events for this summer series, one of the notable musical experiences in this part of the Hudson Valley, will be the Fine Arts String Quartet on July 27, and a joint recital on September 21 by Arthur Balsam, piano, and William Kroll, well known violinist who is a resident of Woodstock. Both Mr. Kroll and Mr. Balsam are being brought back by popular demand after appearing in concerts at the Mills Museum in recent seasons.

Because the Museum is operated by the State of New York, it is not possible to sell tickets at the door on the night of the concert, and all tickets must be secured in advance. Individual tickets, will be on sale beginning this week at the Rossi Music Store, John street in Kingston. For information about the series, or season subscriptions, those interested are asked to contact Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, Staatsburg. Because the seating capacity is limited, early reservations are suggested.

The Ogden Mills Museum, which resembles the White House and is almost as large, was the country home of President Hoover's Secretary of the Treasury, and is a fabulous storehouse of fine furniture and works of art. It lies about seven miles south of the eastern end of the Kingston-Rhinecliff Bridge, on Route 9, and is directly accessible from the main highway. The Mills State Park, which surrounds the mansion, affords superb views of the Hudson.

MRS. ARNOLD F. BELLINI

Louise Mackin Weds Arnold Bellini of Kingston on May 26

On Sunday, May 26, at Regina Coeli Church, Hyde Park, Miss Louise G. Mackin of Hyde Park, daughter of Mrs. William Burke, Binghamton, and the late Joseph T. Mackin, became the bride of Arnold F. Bellini, son of Arnold Bellini of Kingston and the late Mrs. Jennie Bellini.

The Rev. Edward A. McKaharay, Hyde Park, officiated.

Mrs. Loretta Anderson was at the organ and soloist was William O'Neil.

Given in marriage by her brother, Joseph, the bride wore a white Swiss organdy embroidered with flowers. It was designed with short shirred sleeves, scoop neckline outlined in organdy flowerets and a bouffant skirt which terminated in a chapel sweep. Her fingertip veil of white silk illusion was caught to a princess crown of seed pearls and she carried a prayer book arranged with feathered carnations and a white orchid.

Miss Jean Gartman of Hyde Park was the maid of honor in a floor length gown of pink nylon lace and nylon net over taffeta. It was fashioned with a strapless bodice, an attached stole and full lace skirt which had ruffles at the hemline. Her headpiece was a cloche of pink petals and tiny flowers worn with a circular veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of deep pink roses.

John Machione of Kingston served as best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers included John Ward and Edward Coppo of Kingston.

Following the church ceremony, a reception was held at Norrie Point Inn, Staatsburg for approximately 90 guests.

The bride is a graduate of Roosevelt High School and recently was named "Miss Poughkeepsie" in a contest conducted at Poughkeepsie High School. She has been employed by Aetna Casualty and Surety Company, Poughkeepsie.

He husband is a graduate of Kingston High School and Citadel Military College in South Carolina. In the Korean War, he served as first lieutenant with the Airborne Engineers and received the Purple Heart.

A member of Knights of Columbus in Kingston and Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Bellini is a sales representative with IBM Data Processing division in Albany.

Following a wedding trip to South Carolina, the couple will make their home at 25-A Old Hickory road, Albany.

The Mature Parent

We All Have to Learn That We Can Do the Wrong Thing

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

A mother writes: "Several days ago our 12-year-old girl was invited to the movies by a friend's parents. Soon after, I discovered that she'd left the iron on, scorching a hole in my ironing-board cover. I made her break the date. Since then she's hardly spoken to me. All her life she's held this kind of grudge after punishment . . ."

Maybe she knows how much her mother wants her to say, "I'm sorry. You were right to punish my carelessness."

Eagerness for a punished child's remorse is usually eagerness for his reassurance. It's then he can't feel remorse. He senses our uncertainty of the punishment's rightness. And what he resents is not the punishment but our pretense that we're sure we've done the right thing.

In the case cited, she knows that we're seeking comfort for ourselves, not her realization of the danger of forgetting to switch off the iron.

If we're uncertain that we punished justly, it's wise to acknowledge this to ourselves—and release the child from the obligation to reassure us by saying "I'm sorry."

It's not necessary to give him this release in words. It can be done within ourselves through the realization that we have been romantic to look to the child for moral support. The moment we see this, resentment of this daughter's refusal of it will disappear—and her mother's reduced expectations of her will enable her to treat her kindly again.

No parent can always be sure he's given the right punishment.

Sooner or later, we all have to learn to tolerate the possibility that we've done the wrong thing—and surrender our idea of ourselves as a person who must always do the perfect thing.

Until this kind of self-acceptance is gained, we remain as intolerant of children's mistakes as we are of our own. As we must have only perfect responsibility toward electric irons from our daughter, so we must have only perfect decisions from ourselves.

It's been deficiency in our own training that makes it necessary to seek a youngster's "I'm sorry" after we've punished him.

Our need of it tells us we have some growing up to do. A 12-year-old daughter is not our parent. It is not her business to judge goodness and badness for us. We only ask her to make it her business because we have not had enough experience in entrusting these judgments to our own conscience.

Self-exoneration is a discipline required of us all.

Centralizing Control

Buffalo, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—The Pennsylvania Railroad has begun a multi-million dollar project to install a Centralized Traffic Control system (CTC) on its 300-mile mainline tracks between Rockville, Pa., and Buffalo. Paul W. Neff, manager for the railroad's northern region, said yesterday that work has begun at Sunbury, Pa., where the first of five control stations is being built.

Hits Tax Program

Annapolis, June 5 (AP)—"The American people are being taxed and plundered to discouragement and destruction by excessive government spending and high taxes," a Maryland publisher said today. Talbot T. Speer, publisher of the Annapolis Evening Capital and a chain of southern Maryland weekly newspapers, attacked the government's taxing program in a speech prepared for delivery at a reenactment of the burning of the "Peggy Stewart" here. The pageant was staged as a protest against today's tax rates.

Plane Reported Down

Salem, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—An airplane, believed to be a single-engined spray plane, was reported down near this village today. It was not determined immediately whether the plane had crashed. State police were investigating. An Albany spokesman for the Civil Aeronautics Administration said he understood it was a plane used for spraying trees. Salem is northeast of Saratoga Springs and near the New York-Vermont state line.

Lauds Women's Role

Lancaster, Pa., June 5 (AP) — Women are the "most important political assets any party has," Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler told young Democrats here yesterday. He urged a greater role for women in the Democratic party. Butler spoke to the young Democratic organization of Lancaster.

Finds Four Children After 18-Month Hunt

Kansas City, Kan., June 5 (AP)—Mrs. Virgie Wyss, 26, of Lewisville, Ark., found her four children here yesterday after an 18-month search over much of the nation.

She told District Judge O. Q. Claflin III she last saw them the night of Dec. 15, 1955, at Piggoth, Ark., where the family then lived.

She went to church, she related, and when she returned home her husband, Walter Wyss, 33, and the children were gone.

Recently she said, she was told the motor number of a black, 1949 model car her husband owned. She wrote to officials of the 48 states asking if such a car had been registered.

She came to Kansas City and hired two lawyers. They obtained a habeas corpus order from Judge Claflin yesterday. An officer took Mrs. Wyss to the address shown on the car's registration and found the children there. Her husband was at work at a junk yard.

The mother was recognized by the three older children, Philip, 7; Rhonda, 6 and Michael, 4. But the baby, Arthur, not quite 3, couldn't remember her.

Methodists Convene

Buffalo, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Presiding Bishop W. Earl Ledden, resident bishop of the Syracuse area, today opened the 148th session of the Genesee annual conference of the Methodist Church at the Kenmore Methodist Church in suburban Kenmore. The conference represents 313 churches with more than 80,000 members in western New York and northern Pennsylvania.

Girl Scout News

Encampment

The first encampment of Senior Girl Scouts and mentally handicapped teen-agers ever attempted in Ulster county was staged successfully at Camp Wendy, Ulster county's established Girl Scout camp at Wallkill, during the past weekend.

The county-wide Camporee was jointly sponsored by the Ulster county Senior Girl Scout Planning Board and the Ulster county Association for the Help of Retarded Children under the direction of Mrs. Donovan Buehring, Girl Scout Council president, Carolee Leware, president of the planning board, and Katherine Hammesfahr, Wallkill's Senior Girl Scout representative on the board. Nearly 50 teen-age girls arrived by cars and station wagons on Friday afternoon to participate in the weekend event.

The annual report of the national organization of the Girl Scouts of the U. S. A. of 1953 took cognizance of the importance of the role of the Girl Scouts in giving handicapped children their place in society.

The report stated that Girl Scouting for the handicapped is based on the principle set forth in the White House Conference "Child's Bill of Rights" (1930). This stresses the right of every child to grow up in a world which does not set him apart, which welcomes him exactly as it welcomes every other child and which offers him identical privileges and identical responsibilities.

In the year 1953 a total of 439 mentally handicapped children in 32 troops were Girl Scouts. Following the nation-wide emphasis in this phase of Girl Scouting during that year, there has been a steady incline in the enrollment of handicapped girls, of all types, within the Scout program. Coinciding with the national Girl Scout movement in this direction, the National Association for the Help of Retarded Children, through its state and local chapter associations of parents, has given like impetus to this program.

Cooperating with the Girl Scout organization, an ever-increasing number of Girl Scout troops for mentally handicapped girls have been formed. In many communities these handicapped girls become an integral part of an established troop. In Ulster county both handicapped girls and boys are happy, well-adusted Scouts within their troops.

Adults Assist

The Wendy Camporee was initiated by the Senior Girl Scout Planning Board. As plans developed, the teen-age mentally handicapped girls of Kingston were invited to participate as a unit. Pre-Camporee plans included planning meals for the three-day event, purchasing the food and familiarizing themselves with outdoor camping skills. Transportation and leadership was provided by the adults within both organizations.

The overall program was set up by the Misses Leware and Hammesfahr, Ulster county's official delegates to the Senior Girl Scout Roundup in Michigan last summer. The program designed primarily to afford an opportunity for improving outdoor camping skills for the girls and to promote a better understanding of the Girl Scouts' responsibility for offering the program to "all girls who want it" included: Charcoal cooking, eating and sleeping outdoors the entire weekend, fire-building demonstrations, waterfront activities, nature hike, instruction in setting up outdoor primitive living accommodations star-gazing through a telescope, camp fires, group singing, snack parties and dramatics.

Adults assisting with planning and staging the Camporee were: Mrs. Daniel VanWagenen, Ulster County Girl Scout camp chairman, Mrs. David Ennis, county program chairman and Kingston High School troop leader, Mrs. Henry Gregorio and Miss Lotty Castellano, senior troop leaders, of Highland, Miss Leware of Kingston, Miss Hammesfahr of Wallkill, and Mrs. Walter Furman of Kingston, Ulster county AHRC chapter president.

Three to Face Trial

Los Angeles, June 5 (AP) — Three men accused of touching off a flash fire that killed six persons in a neighborhood bar will got to trial June 24 on murder and arson charges. A fourth man seized after the April 4 blaze was freed because of lack of evidence at a pre-trial hearing before Superior Judge Louis H. Burke yesterday. He is Oscar Brenhaugh, 44. The three ordered to stand trial are Clyde Bates, 36, Manuel J. Hernandez, 18, and Manuel Chavez, 25. Each was indicted on six counts of murder and one of arson.

From spring to fall, it's always strawberry time in California. That fertile state produces about 44 per cent of the total U. S. crop.

A French cook we know sings about her mother's cheesecake made of fresh strawberries, cream cheese and whipped cream. Here's her recipe, Americanized.

Strawberry Cheesecake Parisan
(One 9-inch cake)

One quart fresh strawberries, cut in half; 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin, ½ cup cold water, ½ teaspoon salt, 2 eggs, separated; two 8-ounce packages cream cheese, softened; 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 cup heavy cream, whipped; 3 tablespoons currant jelly.

Reserve ½ cup strawberries for topping. Combine remaining strawberries and sugar; mix well and let stand ½ hour. Soften gelatin in ½ cup water. Drain juice from strawberries and add enough water to make 1 cup liquid. Add salt and egg yolks; beat well. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add gelatin mixture; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Add strawberry mixture; mix well. Chill until slightly thickened.

Combine cheese and lemon juice; beat until fluffy. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add strawberry mixture to cheese mixture and beat until smooth.

Fold in egg whites and cream. Turn into a 9-inch spring form pan. Chill until firm. Meanwhile, melt jelly; add reserved strawberries and mix well. Arrange on cake; chill.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Oven-fried chicken, frozen potato puffs, new peas, soft rolls, butter or margarine, lettuce and cucumber salad, Parisian strawberry cheesecake, coffee, tea, milk.

Scout Camporee Attended by 565

Rip Van Winkle Council, Boy Scouts of America, held its annual camporee Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Camp Tri-Mount, East Jewett, with 565 Scouts and leaders from 34 units attending.

Hike Is Highlight

Highlight of the two-day program was a "Sealed Orders" hike which called for many applications of Scout skills as the troops hiked the rugged four-hour trail. Scouts working as patrols set up their campsites, cooked their meals and carried out a program of action over a three-day period for most of them.

A campfire with songs and skits was one of Saturday's friendship experiences. Bob Tremper, Lin Carter and Ed Granberg served as song leaders. One of the hits of the evening was a cub newly arrived from Germany, Peter Otto, who sang a German song for the scouts. Troops 77, 74, Post 78 put on skits to everyone's enjoyment. The campfire program was emceed by Jerry Blair, Scout executive.

The commissioner staff set up the Camporee, handled traffic, judged the camporee, and planned and handled all arrangements: Edward Safford, Gordon Craig Jr., Joseph Shapiro, Robert Tremper, Robert B. Greene, Richard Waltman, Frank Myers, Ray Reifeiss, Joseph Gyssels, Anton Geerts, Irving Benjamin, James Steenberg and two Explorers from Ship 45, Coxsackie and George Sheldon, H. & S. chairman assisted.

Paltz Troop First

Troops scoring the best on the Camporee judging were: First, Troop 74, New Paltz, sponsored by the Brannen-Van DenBerg, VFW No. 8645, Scoutmaster, Robert Kaelin; second, Troop 20, Hurley Lions Club, Scoutmaster, Arthur Rowland; third, Troop 17, sponsored by the Tillson School, Scoutmaster, Walter Godfrey. The scoring was close all the way—79.6, 76.3 and 76.2

The following Units participated: Kongston Troops 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 10, 11, 12, 19, Stone Ridge 16, Tillson 17, Hurley 20, Port Ewen 26, Ellenville 28, Saugerties 32, 38, 130, Catskill 41, 44, Greenville 42, East Jewett 55, Woodstock 34, Ashokan 63, 163, Highland 70, New Paltz 74, 77.

Explorer Posts: 41, 44, Catskill; 70, Highland; 78, New Paltz; 130, Saugerties.

Housewife Saves Tot

Massapequa, N. Y., June 5 (AP) —A 36-year-old housewife applied some prewar nurse's aid training yesterday to save a tot who fell into a canal near her Long Island home. Mrs. Grace Ruden was working in her kitchen when Frank Pizzarelli, 3, ran in and announced breathlessly: "My brother is in the wawater." The housewife raced to the canal, waded in up to her waist and pulled Patrick Pizzarelli, 1½, ashore by his hair. He appeared lifeless. Then Mrs. Ruden applied her never-before-used lessons in artificial respiration. After 15 minutes the boy stirred and opened his eyes.

Bid Gets in Wrong Hand

BY OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

South won the opening spade lead with his jack and led the ten of diamonds. East looked dummy over carefully and decided that the only way to beat the three no-trump contract would be to develop a club trick.

The way to develop that club trick would be to lead the suit and East made the unusual but correct lead of the club jack.

Dummy's king won that trick and a second diamond was played and won by East's ace. Now East led the deuce of clubs and it did not matter what declarer did. He could not shut out West's queen of clubs or East's ace and queen of hearts.

This was mighty good defense by East but he had been lucky in his choice of opponents. North and South were using the weak no-trump and North was unable to open one no-trump as a normal player would have.

This resulted in getting the play in the wrong hand. If North had opened with the standard one no-trump South would have raised to three with nine points plus two tens and three nines.

East would probably have opened the deuce of clubs whereupon it would be all over for the defense. If East selected his fourth best heart or diamond he would have the chance to make the killing jack of clubs lead later on.

Maybe he would have figured it out also but it was much easier with the strong hand face up on the table.

Why We Say--

FORM OF TORTURE: When someone is "tickled to death," he is happy about something. Actually the Chinese had a sadistic torture in which they tickled a person so vigorously that he lost his breath and died.

... Chevrolet with Turboglide!

Chevy's come up with the newest, sweetest, smoothest automatic drive—Turboglide. It's the first and only triple-turbine transmission!

Turboglide is something really new and different in automatic drives. In the first place, there's only one forward-speed position on the control panel. There's no "Low" needed.

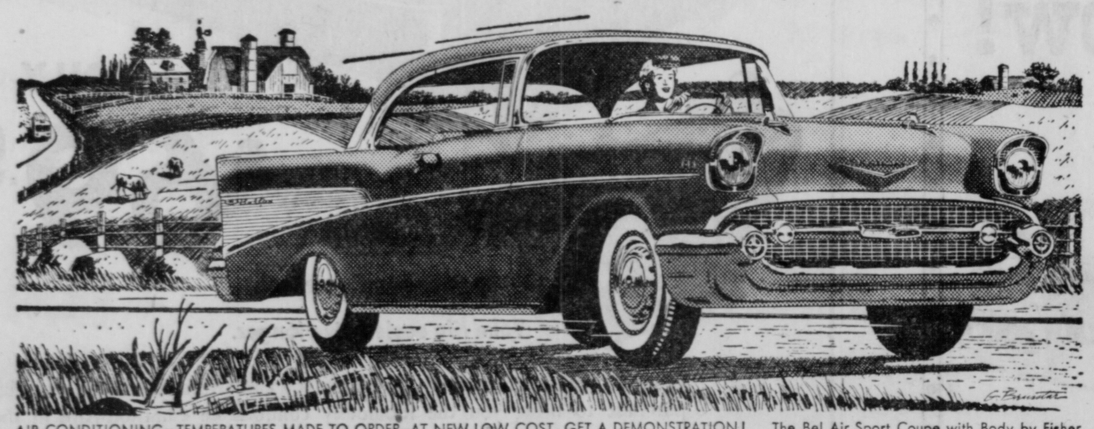

Turboglide handles everything with the oil-smooth action of triple turbines. You travel from a standstill to top cruising speeds with never a lurch or lag to mar your motion.

When you see a steep downhill stretch ahead, you set the selector at "GR" (Grade Retarder) and Turboglide helps slow you down.

Try Chevy's new, nothing-like-it automatic drive. It's optional at extra cost—and worth it.

Dam Collapses

Federal Dam, Minn., June 5 (AP)—A section of a 73-year-old government dam collapsed into the Leech Lake river last night, loosing waters of the huge lake onto lightly populated lowlands of northern Minnesota's wilderness country. Dam tenders here and along the bloated stream said there was no cause for alarm, however. Flatlands adjacent to the lake were absorbing much of the flow. Some 100 feet of the 1000-feet concrete dam, under repair by work crews, gave way at the edge of Leech Lake. The lake serves as the second northerly reservoir for the Mississippi river, which has its headwaters in Itasca State Park some 40 miles northwest of the big lake.

Margaret Truman Gives Birth to Boy

New York, June 5 (AP)—Mrs. Clifton Daniel, the former Margaret Truman, gave birth to a 6-pound 8-ounce boy today. Mother and son were reported "doing fine."

"Margaret is very happy," said Daniel, "and I'm tired but happy." The baby is their first.

Margaret, 33, and Daniel, 44, went to Doctors Hospital yesterday at 2:30 p. m. The baby was born at 12:11 a. m. today.

Dr. Louise Dantuono, the attending physician, described the delivery as normal.

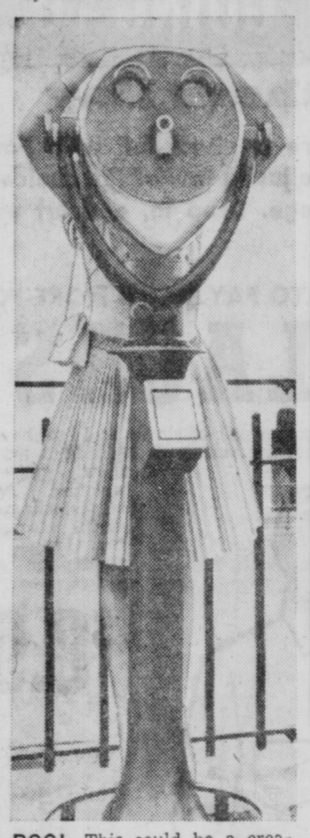

All you have to do is move into the classified column for success.

WELCOMER—Priscilla Alden Kiefer, 22, of Montclair, N.J., will be the official hostess at reception ceremonies planned for the arrival of the Mayflower II, expected to reach the U.S. from England in early June. Priscilla, the 11th descendant of the Priscilla Alden of historical fame, is holding a model of the ship.

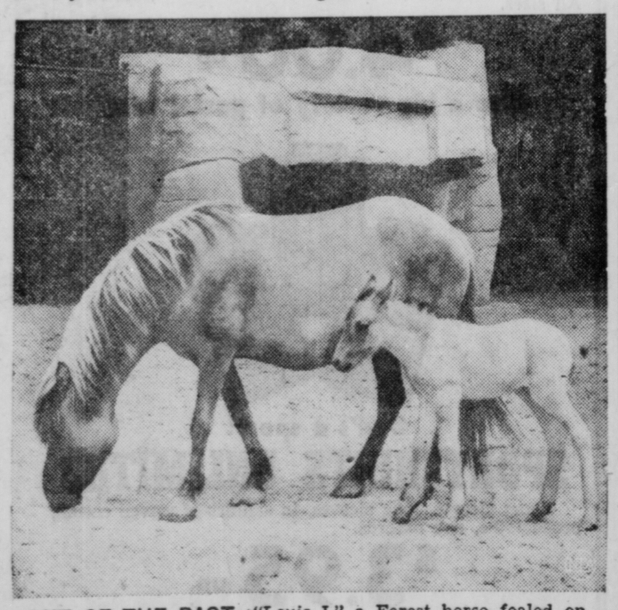

WEAR THAT STEAK BONE!—Some folks see a pot of soup or food for the dog in a bone, but Walter J. LaVoy, instructor in home art at Pennsylvania State University, sees a bone as a striking piece of jewelry. Steak and other beef bones are best for this purpose because they are more solid, says LaVoy, who saws away at a steak bone, left, and displays the finished product, a pair of earrings, at right. A skilled and original jewelry designer, LaVoy sandpapers the bone after sawing it into the desired shapes and designs, then rubs a little oil pigment into it to give it the color of old ivory. His friends who wear his jewelry take great pleasure in startling their friends by such remarks as "These earrings are from a T-bone steak."

BOO!—This could be a creature from outer space sporting a big grin, but it isn't. The girl in pleated skirt is merely getting a 10-cent close-up of passing ships and the Statue of Liberty from one of the powerful binoculars in New York's Battery Park.

STILTED SCULPTOR—Using stilts to get closer to his work, former sailor Barney West bangs away at this exotic nine-foot "Tiki" statue at his home in Larkspur, Calif. Impressed by the Easter Island and Polynesian carvings he saw while in the Merchant Marine, Barney has begun a new career by sculpting similar statues and selling them. A statue like this one—a Hawaiian family god—will sell for about $400.

OUT OF THE PAST—"Louis I," a Forest horse foaled on May 25, looks as though it may have been carved from the stone in background as it follows its mother on the grounds at Chicago's Brookfield Zoo. Louis I is the second such horse ever born in the U.S. Forest horses once roamed Europe but became extinct centuries ago. Dr. Heinz Beck, director of the zoo in Munich, Germany, developed duplication of the species after 30 years of careful breeding. Both parents of Louis I were brought to Chicago from Munich.

Urges Dairy Programs Be Long-Range Plans

Syracuse, June 5 (AP)—A dairy leader today urged farmers to work for long-range programs that will benefit them because, he said, "dairying is a lifetime enterprise."

J. Thomas Cribbs of Poyntelle, Pa., president of the Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Assn., advised members of the organization to steer clear of short-term remedies.

Cribbs said in a speech prepared for Eastern's 18th annual meeting that many schemes were presented to farmers that purported to make them rich quickly. These programs, he said, usually failed to become effective or failed to produce lasting results.

"Getting a fair price for milk to the farmer is a many sided thing," Cribbs said. "Programs that will last have to be carried out under governmental regulations. They have to include a tax on all areas of the low-priced problem, not simply in areas which directly raise farm prices."

Representatives of Eastern's 135 local units in New York, Pennsylvania and Vermont attended the session.

260 Drivers Still Out

Paterson, N. J., June 5 (AP)—Some 30,000 commuters must use alternate means of transportation today because 260 drivers of the Inter-City Bus Transoprtation Co. still are on strike. Joseph Kutcha, chairman of the grievance committee of Local 661 of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, said the drivers will meet again this afternoon. But he said they will "sit tight" until management makes the first move.

Goes to Dannemora

Attica, N. Y., June 5 (AP) — George P. Hetenyi, a former clergyman who was sentenced to 40-years-to-life when convicted of murdering his wife, has been transferred from Attica State Prison to Dannemora State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. Martin said that Hetenyi was sent to the hospital because examinations by psychiatrists had revealed that his mental condition had deteriorated over the past several years.

Power Output Declines

New York, June 5 (AP)—Electric power production declined last week but remained 3.4 per cent ahead of the same week of 1956, Edison Electric Institute said today. Output in the holiday week totaled 10,936,000,000 kilowatt hours compared with 11,574,000,000 the week before and 10,598,000,000 in the year ago week.

Stage Manager At Playhouse

KEVIN TYLER

Woodstock, June 5 — A. L. Sainer has announced the engagement of Kevin Tyler as stage manager for the Woodstock Playhouse. Mr. Tyler is a graduate from St. Francis Xavier College in Shanghai, a city in which he spent practically all of his boyhood and part of his post-teen-age period.

While in Shanghai he played with the Shanghai Symphony Orchestra as piano soloist, and operated his own weekly radio show. He is also the founder of the Shanghai Amateur Group which produced ballet, operas and plays. He continued his musical activities at the New England Conservatory of Music and with the Boston Pops. He has stage-managed and acted in summer stock for several years. Last summer Mr. Tyler was with the Monomoy Theatre in Chatham, Mass.

$75,000 Fire

Yorkville, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—A two-story frame building containing two business establishments and three apartments was damaged extensively by fire yesterday in this Utica suburb. Three persons, including a woman, were overcome by smoke. Fred Welch, owner of the drug store, estimated the damage at approximately $75,000.

The United States Military Academy (West Point) was founded in 1802.

Onteora Nips Wallkill 5-4, to Finish Second

Vanacore Steals Home in Ninth

Onteora Central squeezed out a 5-4 nine-inning win over Wallkill Central yesterday at Boiceville in a battle for final posession of second place in the UCAL. The game was the last for both teams.

By winning, the Indians wound up with their best overall baseball record—9 won, 4 lost. And they finished the highest ever in the UCAL.

Victory again didn't come easy for Coach Tom Wheeler's boys who have been involved in more one-run contests than any other team in the league. Yesterday's extra inning thriller was the third for the Indians, and second with Wallkill. The last time they clashed Wallkill won, 2-1.

Game 'Stolen'

Smallish Lou Vanacore literally 'stole' the game for the Indians. It all happened quite by accident, too, and this is how:

With the bases loaded an none out, Art Davis tried to bunt, but the ball was too far away from the plate for him to get his bat on it. Vanacore was steaming in from third all the time and stole home on a play that just could have easily backfired.

That daring maneuver gave Jim Rose the pitching verdict over southpaw Henry Hecht. Rose took over when Vanacore was routed in the third and hurled two-hit shutout ball the rest of the way.

Onteora got three runs in the first after Wallkill scored once. A walk, Vanacore's single, an error and another walk preceded Davis' two-run single and did the damage.

Wallkill Goes Ahead

Wallkill went ahead in the third with three runs. Ron Conroy's two-run double chased Vanacore and nosed the visitors in front.

The game then rocked along in a scoreless duel until the ninth when Vanacore and Boggs singled and Weiderspeil beat out a scratch hit to load the sacks. Then came the daylight larceny by Vanacore.

Onteora finished just one game behind Saugerties in the race with an 8-4 mark. Its other win was over Cairo outside the loop. Wallkill took third place on the strength of a 7-5 record.

Rally Falls Short

Poughkeepsie Jayvees Hold Off Maroon, 6-5

Kingston High Jayvees rallied for three runs in the last inning, but fell one short as Poughkeepsie High Juniors won, 6-5, at the Bridge City.

The setback was the seventh in eight games and marked the end of the season for Coach Ken Brown's boys. Their lone victory was over Newburgh.

Paul Gardner's triple and Walt Harder's single featured the too-late surge. Kingston had the tying run on base when the game ended.

Gavin Starts

Ivan Gavin started for the locals but was chased in the fifth. Gardner came in with the bases loaded and one run in and was greeted by Al Dorfman's triple which cleared the sacks and hiked the Pioneers' margin to 6-2. Gardner settled down after that and kept the home club at bay.

Harder and Gavin slugged doubles. The former had three hits in all. Kingston collected 11 bingles, but most of them were wasted.

Marlboro Defeats Highland, 3 to 1, In UCAL Finale

Marlboro Central tied Highland High for final possession of fourth place in the UCAL yesterday by nipping the visiting Highlanders, 3-1.

Sophomore Dom DiCapua restricted two hits in hurling Coach Jack Kroh's to the .500 mark (6-6) for the loop season. The young righthander struck out six and walked three and was robbed of a shutout in the second.

Marlboro got DiCapua two runs in the first and that later proved to be all he needed. Richie Mandia's run-tallying single back of two walks and a pair of passed balls accounted for markers.

Walt Burger, Highland righthander, was tapped for another tally in the fourth and that completed the scoring. Burger gave four hits, all singles, fanned one and passed four.

Gonsalves Stopped

London, June 4 (AP) — Dave Charnley, British lightweight champion, tonight stopped Johnny Gonsalves, veteran contender from Oakland, Calif., in the eighth round of a ten-rounder.

Southpaw Fires Two-Hitter in Non-Loop Contest

Kingston High won its baseball finale yesterday at Dietz Stadium by blanking Catskill, 6-0, behind the superb three-hit pitching of lefthander Bob Beadle.

The victory avenged an earlier 5-1 defeat and gave the locals a record of 5 won and 9 lost on the season. It marked their first triumph over non-league opposition after five failures.

Coach Al Gruner started a non-senior team and the move paid rich dividends. All but one of the players used will be returning next year which makes for a promising future.

Beadle Shines

Beadle was the brightest rookie, handcuffing the Greene county club on three harmless singles. Probably the most outstanding feature of his performance was his control.

Like so many other young southpaws, Beadle has been plagued by frequent spells of wildness, but that wasn't so yesterday. He walked just one and that batter was cut down trying to steal. He wound up with nine strikeouts.

Hitchcock Pitches Well

Dave Hitchcock, Beadle's mound rival, hurled a creditable two-hitter, but walks and fielding failures caused his undoing. He passed out five free passes and committed two costly errors which opened the way for Kingston's first three runs.

In the second, Hobie Armstrong scratched a hit off third baseman Mel Pfeil's glove and then scooted to third when Hitchcock tried to pick him off. Tony Gallo's squeeze bunt got Hobie across with the first run.

A walk to Dave O'Connor with one down started a two-run spree in the next frame. A wild pitch got O'Connor to second where he scored while Hitchcock was throwing away Tom Mickney's ground ball. Mickney wound up on second, and after stealing third, ambled in as catcher Dave Smith overthrew third on a pickoff try.

Ambrose Drives in Pair

Frank Ambrose got the only solid KHS hit and it drove in two runs in the fifth. Before Ambrose slammed his safety, Hitchcock balked in a run.

Hitchcock fanned a gaudy 13. He whiffed at least one in every inning. The only frame he set down the Maroon in order was the fourth.

Catskill came closest to scoring in the first when Pat Walsh singled and Beadle walked a batter with two outs. But the KHS portsider bore down and whiffed the next man.

Bahama Boxes Turner Tonight

Miami Beach, Fla., June 5 (AP) —Yama Bahama, a middleweight known as a fancy workman, seeks a second victory tonight over Gil Turner of Philadelphia.

Bahama, who had to go north to become a main event fighter, opposes Turner in his first featured 10-rounder here. The fight will be on television (ABC) starting at 10 p. m. (EDT).

Bahama fought his first bout at the Miami Beach Auditorium Nov. 17, 1953, when he knocked out Harry Irwin in one round. Less than a year later, he went to Detroit and New York.

The pride of Bimini, British West Indies, will be after his second straight victory over Turner, a ring craftsman from Philadelphia.

Turner, according to his manager George Katz, wasn't in condition for that 10-rounder in New York June 29 but he said that tonight "Gil will be ready to throw punches for 30 minutes."

Will Qualify Two

Jaycee Golf Tourney Scheduled on Friday

National Jaycee scholarships totalling $2500 are the ultimate goals of all young golfers eligible for the 1957 Jaycee competition.

The local qualifying round is scheduled Friday, June 7, at 2 p. m. at The Twaalfskill Club in Kingston. Two boys will be qualified for the state eliminations at Cornell University on July 22-23.

First and second scholarships are worth $1000 apiece, with a special award of $500 for sportsmanship.

The Twaalfskill competition is open to all male golfers who have not attained 18 years of age by Aug. 15, 1957.

The two low medalists over 18 holes will be sent to Cornell University state tournament. It is expected that Gene Sarazen or another famous golfer will put on a special exhibition and clinic at Cornell.

All Expenses Paid

The winners of the Kingston tourney will be sponsored by the Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce at no cost to the contestants.

The state champion will have an expenses-paid trip to the national tournament at the beautiful Ohio State University golf course at Columbus, Ohio, on Aug. 19-24.

Other prizes will be several trophies, a trip to Europe for the international Jaycee tournament and many gifts of merchandise.

Deadline for local entries is midnight tonight. Chairman of the local event is George H. Moore, phone 2268-J.

Harness Breeding Group Approved

Albany, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—Formation of a new membership corporation to promote the breeding of harness race horses in New York State has been approved by a State Supreme Court Justice.

Papers filed in the Albany County clerk's office yesterday disclosed that Justice Harry E. Schirick had approved the incorporation of the Harness Horse Breeders of New York State Inc.

Directors of the corporation were listed as Charles F. Russo of Altamont, Harold J. Hughes of Albany Charles N. Gorman of Marcy, David R. Chambers of Unadilla, John A. Seymour of DeKalb Junction and Marcus Dailey and John D. Robinson both of Albion.

Nick Morris Paces Juniors With 455

Nick Morris paced the Junior Bowling league with games of 154, 144, and 157 for a 455 series. Art Ferraro shot 184-427, Bill Weaver 147-416 and Howard Broskie 151-407. Three teams—Ferraro's Bombers, Aiello's Rest and Oster Aces are tied for the league lead with 7 wins and 3 losses.

Team results:

Rapp's Van Lines 3, Freers 0; Aiello's Rest 3, Van Alstynes 0; Ferraro's Bombers 2, Oster's Aces 1.

Chappie's Pull Triple Play

Trailer Haven, Downtown S-A Chappies Score in Rec League

Trailer Haven defeated Krovans, 9 to 6; Downtown S&A clubbed Hercules, 14-10; Chappie's overwhelmed VFW, 16-11, and Ten Grand Tavern won from Bullocks on forfeit in the Recreation Softball League Tuesday.

Art Carpouzis settled down after a shaky start to check Krovans with one run. The Havens scored four times in the sixth to nail down the decision.

Charlie Marable slapped a single and triple for Trailer Haven. Hubie Richter and Joe Berardi smashed three hits each for Krovans.

John Crespino cracked a doubles and homer to pace Downtown S&A's win over Hercules, the SAs rallying for six runs in the seventh for the clincher. D. Slater had three hits for S&A. Jeff Brannen, Jim Uhl and Don Slater tripled.

Pull Triple Play

Chappie's Taxi pulled off a triple play and collected 17 hits in routing VFW, despite a 7-run seventh by the Vets. Chappie's led 12-1 at the end of three. B. Schlanger, Richie Nagele and Mike Provenzano figured in the triple play. Provenzano also smashed two doubles and two homers in five tries. Schlanger hit a homer and two singles and Hermie Sickler poled a homer and two singletons for VFW. Bill O'Dea and T. Huth also hit homers.

Ten Grand Tavern won on forfeit from Bullocks when the latter team was able to field only seven players.

Trips All Alone Atop Standings In Eastern Loop

(By The Associated Press)

The Binghamton Triplets are all alone at the top of the Eastern League today. It was Reading outfielder Mitch June's booming bat that was mostly responsible.

June smashed two homers and a double for four runs last night as the Indians trounced Schenectady 9-5 and knocked the Blue Jays out of a first-place tie with Binghamton. The Triplets, meanwhile, edged Albany 3-1.

There were some hectic goings-on at Springfield w... the hapless Syracuse Chiefs went down to familiar defeat, 8-4.

The game erupted in the eighth inning when Springfield scored five unearned runs. The outburst started when Springfield runner Felipe Alou raced home on a squeeze play. He was called out, but then the Chiefs' catcher dropped the ball and Alou was ruled safe, with the tying run. Syracuse Manager Frank Calo said Alou had knocked the ball from the catcher's hands.

Springfield mentor Mike McCormick joined in the dispute and both men were restrained by the umpires when the argument became more than verbal.

Following the rhubarb, Umpire Ralph Deleonardis was hit in the face by a ball thrown during a relay by Syracuse shortstop Ray Gianelli. Deleonardis was held at a hospital overnight for X-rays.

Calo had to take himself from the game when he was struck in the throat by a foul tip.

Baseball Brass Subpoenaed to House Hearings

New York, June 5 (AP)—A full complement of baseball officials and player representatives, headed by Commissioner Ford Frick, has been supoenaed to appear before the House Judiciary Committee investigating professional sports.

J. Norman Lewis, the players' attorney, revealed yesterday that the committee, headed by Rep. Emanuel Celler (D.-N. Y.), has subpoenaed him; Frick; National League President Warren Giles; American League head Will Harridge and player representatives Robin Roberts and Eddie Yost for the hearings beginning June 17.

The Congressional committee is expected to probe baseball to determine whether it should be made subject to the antitrust laws. The Supreme Court, in 1953, ruled that the sport is a "unique business" and thus does not fall under the antitrust statutes.

Outlook Dimmer For Ball Clubs Staying in NYC

New York, June 5 (AP) — The outlook appeared dimmer than ever today for the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants remaining in New York.

The heralded "showdown" meeting between Brooklyn President Walter O'Malley and New York head Horace Stoneham with Mayor Robert F. Wagner at City Hall yesterday gave rise to one belief:

Unless the city fathers produce suitable new park sites before Oct. 1, the Dodgers will move to Los Angeles and the Giants to San Francisco.

Adding to the local gloom, there appeared no immediate prospect for a new site for the Dodgers or Giants. The mayor poured cold water on any thought that the city might build or subsidize a park for either club when he stated:

"O'Malley and Stoneham assured us they have made no commitments to move to the west coast. Therefore, we will continue to do everything within reason to try to keep them in New York. Under no circumstances, however, will the city build a stadium for either the Giants or Dodgers."

The city's chief executive also told a huge press gathering that neither O'Malley nor Stoneham had made any commitments to stay in New York.

Jim Reed Top Ellie Pitcher And Batsman

Pitcher Jim Reed swept honors in baseball at Ellenville Central school and was highly instrumental in leading the Blue Devils to a fine 8-3 season and the Village DUSO League championship.

According to figures compiled by Coach Ron Anderson, Reed paced his club in both hitting and pitching. He is a 16-year-old junior and returns next season.

Altogether, Reed was tops in five hitting departments and every category but earned run average on the mound.

Hits .486

He compiled a scintillating .486 batting average, getting 18 hits in 37 trips. Included in his bag of base knocks were four homers, two triples and two doubles. He drove in 16 runs.

On the hill, Reed won six games and dropped only one. He posted a sizzling 1.23 ERA for 45 2/3 inning of hurling. He fanned 65 and walked 21.

Brown Second on .393

Tom Brown and Charlie Kushner ran second and third in hitting to Reed. Brown clicked off a .393 mark and Kushner hit .382. Sam Painter, who hit .324, was the only other player above .300.

Bob Gorman was the ERA leader with .009 or less than one run a game. He won 2 and lost 1.

Pierce, Haddix Latest Heroes

Strong Pitching Sparking Play of White Sox, Phillies

(The Associated Press)

Just how much does pitching count these days in the majors?

To the Chicago White Sox it means a five-game American League lead. And to the Philadelphia Phillies it means a sudden and surprising surge that now has carried to within 1½ games of first place in the National.

The weak-hitting White Sox lead the majors with 19 complete games from their pitching staff. The Phillies' staff tops the National with 18.

Last night offered a pretty fair example of how the two clubs have been getting the job done. Little Billy Pierce, the winningest pitcher in either league, won his ninth with a two-hitter that beat the Boston Red Sox 1-0 in 10 innings. It was Pierce's seventh complete game, fifth in a row, for the top AL total.

Phillies Get Closer

The Phillies edged up on first place Cincinnati by defeating the Redlegs 3-1 on the three-hit pitching of Harvey Haddix, who won his fourth and collected his second complete game although weakened by a month-long bout with a virus.

With Pierce at work, the second place New York Yankees gained no ground with their 7-4 victory over Cleveland that pushed the third place Tribe 6½ games back. Baltimore moved to within a half-game of sixth place Kansas City, beating the A's 9-7; and Washington knocked off Detroit 4-3.

While the Phillies, who like the White Sox have won seven of their last nine games, were dumping the Redlegs, the Brooklyn Dodgers claimed a full share of third place, two games behind, with a 7-5 success over the Chicago Cubs. Milwaukee's Braves slipped into fourth, three games back, with an 8-7, 13-inning defeat by the New York Giants. Pittsburgh quit the cellar with a 5-4 verdict over St. Louis.

7-Hitter For Pierce

The White Sox have gotten complete games in six of their last seven victories and Pierce chipped in his second in that span with a seven-strikeout job. He walked none while giving up a double to Billy Klaus in the third and single to Norm Zauchin in the eighth. The Sox finally got around to backing him up when Nellie Fox lined a one-out, bases-loaded single off reliever Ike Delock.

The Yankees slammed 12 hits, one a ninth-inning home run by Hank Bauer, and wrapped it up with three-run bursts in the first and third for Tom Sturdivant's fourth victory. Mickey Mantle (3-for-4), Yogi Berra (2-for-4) and Bauer (1-for-4)—fined $1,000 along with Billy Martin and pitcher Whitey Ford Monday for their nightclub scrap—had half the Yankee hits off loser Bud Daley and two relievers.

The Phillies sent Brooks Lawrence to his third defeat with a pair of runs in the second on an error, a triple by Chico Fernandez and a sacrifice fly by Haddix. The 31-year-old lefty struck nine, walked two and got out of a two-on, none-out jam in the ninth.

Homers Pace Dodgers

Home runs by Duke Snider and Gil Hodges helped the Dodgers to a 7-0 lead, but Sandy Koufax then collapsed, although gaining his fourth victory with Clem Labine's relief help. A two-run, sixth-inning homer by Bob Speake was the Cubs' first hit, but a three-run homer by Ernie Banks started the young southpaw on the way out in the eighth. Koufax struck out 12, taking the NL lead with 59.

A two-out single by Dusty Rhodes won for the Giants, who also had home runs by Willie Mays and Red Schoendienst. Al Worthington won his sixth in relief, striking out seven in six innings. The Braves, who have lost six of 10 extra-inning games this season, had four home runs —by Frank Torre, Hank Aaron, Carl Sawatski and Del Crandall. Gene Conley lost it.

George Kell became the 100th player to make 2,000 hits in the majors getting three to spark Baltimore's comeback victory. He hit a two-run homer as the Orioles wiped out a five-run Kansas City lead in the fifth and then singled for two more in the ninth.

Gerald Hawkins Hurls First No-Hitter in Little League

Gerald Hawkins of the Electrol Giants fashioned the first no-hitter of the Little League season in American League Tuesday and it was the kind of game he's not likely to forget too quickly.

Gerald got his no-hitter but 13 walks helped the Lions Club Yankees score five runs as the Giants won 15-5. Hawkins struck out 15 to balance off the walks. He also starred at bat with a double and two singles.

Sam J. Direct Pacing Victor

Yonkers, N. Y., June 5 (AP) — Sam J. Direct, owned and driven by Alan Myer of Laurel, Del., easily won the Beacon Pace before 20,344 at Yonkers Raceway last night.

The five-year-old gelding moved with a rush to take command from the pacesetting Meadow Jewel rounding the far turn and drew out to be a two-length winner. Newport Honor, with William Myer at the reins, finished fast to land second. The favored Some Knight and Frank Safford finished third.

The winner paced the mile in 2:04 and returned $9.

The judges announced a 15-day suspension of driver Warren Dennis "for an infraction during the third race Monday night, June 3." According to the announcement, Dennis, driving King Casco, who made a short break going into the first turn, "made no effort to be a contender after that infraction." Dennis will be eligible to drive again June 21.

Painful Proof

Newport, Ky. (AP)—A stranger approached James L. Snow and asked if he wanted to buy a .22 caliber pistol. "Does it work?" asked Snow, as the stranger handed over the gun. It did. The pistol discharged, sending Snow to the hospital with a bullet wound in the leg.

74-Year-Old 2nd In Seniors Golf

Rye, N. Y., June 5 (AP)—William H. Diddle of Carmel, Ind., provides little solace for fortyish golfers who begin to puff about the 12th hole.

Diddle, a noted golf course architect, yesterday toured the historic Apawamis golf club's par 72 course in a smooth 37-37—74 to stand one stroke behind the leaders in the U. S. Seniors Golf Assn. championship. Many tournament golfers shoot 74s. But not when they're 74 years old as is Diddle.

The Indiana golfer trailed defending champion Franklin G. Clement, 57, of Lake Forest, Ill., and 1949 champion Joseph M. Wells of Newell, W. Va., who each stroked a 73 in the opening day play.

The pacesetters were best in a first half field of 190 seniors who complete their 36-hole bid today. The final half of the 365 entries opens play tomorrow.

Baseball's Famed Clown Prince In Rare Showing

Kingston Colonials have signed the inimitable Al Schacht, baseball's all-time great comedian, to help them launch the New York-New Jersey Baseball League season at Dietz Stadium on Wednesday, June 19.

The Colonial opposition will be the Saugerties Dutchmen.

Meanwhile, Manager Fred Davi's tossers are scheduled to hold their second workout this evening at 6:30 p. m. at Dietz Stadium. The Colonial, who said he was pleased by Monday's large turnout, expects additional candidates tonight.

The appearance of Schacht, the Original Clown Prince of Baseball, is expected to help swell attendance for the Kingston opener.

Limits 1957 Dates

Schacht, now a wealthy restaurant operator on New York's East Side, has limited his 1957 exhibition appearances to 20, including showings at Poughkeepsie and Kingston. He has been clowning since 1924 when he and Nick Altrock of the Washington Senators first made clowning pleasing and acceptable to the fans.

Schacht inspired a flock of imitators down through the years but none has captured the imagination of the American baseball public like the sprightly comic from the East Side.

He still works a full 30-minute period before the game which takes in the two infield practices. After clowning with the two regular infield practices, Al takes the field by himself for 10 to 15 minutes in the natural lull before the start of the ball game.

On Scene 40 Years

Schacht's pantomine routines are famous the world over. In four decades, Schacht has appeared personally before more than 60 million people.

In World Series alone, Al has acted in twenty three, the baseball clown is seen by upwards of 200,000 people. One season he showed in 40 of America's 42 minor leagues.

In compiling his tremendous record, Schacht drives like a madman. In the last decade—exclusive of the war years when he performed for one and a half million GIs in New Guinea, Dutch East Indies, Sicily, the Philippines, Korea and Japan—Schacht whizzed 525,000 miles about the country.

Al Schacht, Clown Prince of Baseball, is by now a part of the American tradition.

Mrs. J. D. Schoonmaker Wins Flag Tourney at Twaalfskill

Mrs. John D. (Ish) Schoonmaker captured the opening Ladies Day event—a Flag tournament—by placing her last shot nine feet from the cup on the 10th hole, Tuesday at the Twaalfskill Club.

Mrs. Schoonmaker led a field of 22 players, one of the largest women's tournaments in Twaalfskill history.

Second to Mrs. Schoonmaker was Mrs. John J. Van Gonsic, who finished 12 feet from the 10th cup with her allotment of handicap strokes in the hole event.

Other winners included Mrs. Edward Minasian, 30 yards from 10th hole; Mrs. George Chilson, 180 yards from 10th hole; Mrs. N. Levan Haver, 200 yards from the 10th hole and Mrs. Austin Boyd Jr., in the cup on the 9th hole.

Large Attendance

Others who competed in the large field were: Mrs. Charles P. Vogel, Mrs. Edward H. Remmert, general chairman of golf; Dr. Shirley Collins, Mrs. William Harris, Mrs. Max Brugman, Mrs. Harold F. King, Mrs. Elbert MacFadden, Mrs. William Darling, Mrs. Burton S. Davis, Mrs. Arthur Hazenbush, Mrs. George Schneider, Mrs. George Rusk, Mrs. Robert Umpleby, Mrs. A. B. Shufeldt, Mrs. John Olivet.

Prizes for the tournament were awarded at a luncheon attended by golfers and social members. Mrs. Remmert, chairman, has announced a string tournament for the Ladies Day, Tuesday, June 11. All social members are cordially invited to the luncheon. Deadline for reservations is Saturday, June 8.

Democrats Edge GOP in Annual Baseball Frolic

Washington, June 5 (AP)—Baseball is safe again for another year.

Congress has had its inning.

Five of them, in fact, last night at Griffith Stadium in what poses each year as a game between House Democrats and Republicans.

When the ordeal for aching backs ended, the Democrats were on top, 10-9. And despite the absolute lack of political significance, the victory caused such glee among the winners you'd have thought they'd just recaptured the White House.

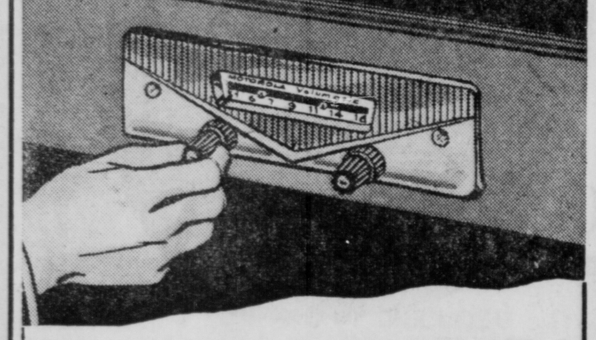

Congressional baseball games have become a tradition. They're staged annually to raise money for the Washington Evening Star's fund to send underprivileged children to summer camp.

Some 2,000 ventured out to see the Dandy Demos, managed by Rep. Olin Teague of Texas, whomp the Grand Old Players, master-minded by Rep. Thor Tollefson of Washington.

'Poor Priests'

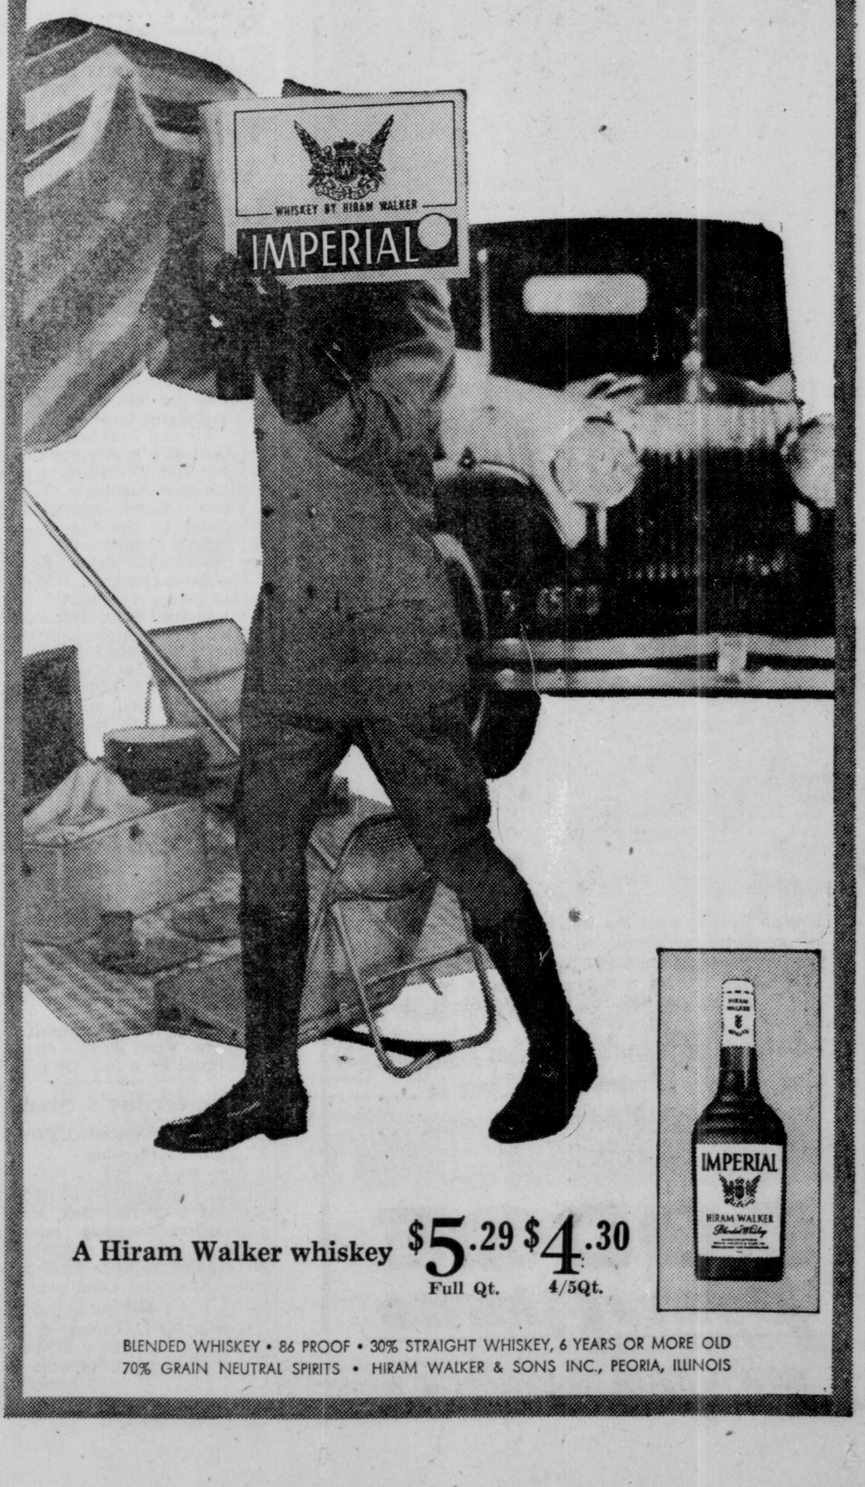

Wycliffe's "poor priests" were a group of disciples whose purpose it was to set out on foot to tell the people the message of the Bible, much as the Apostles of old.

16 Runs in 2nd

WL Yanks Win, 32-1

That wasn't thunder you heard around Woodstock last evening. It was just the Little League Yankees rolling up 16 runs in the second inning and going on to clobber the Giants, 32 to 1, in the Woodstock Township Little League.

The 32-run total and the 16-run second inning set seasonal marks for the area.

All this on 12 hits and 25 walks, plus sundry errors of omission and commission.

Meanwhile, Alex Sharpe went the distance for the victorious Yankees, checking the Giants with four hits and striking out 14. George Klippel fanned nine for the Giants.

Sharpe was also something of a batting whiz for the Yankees with a double and three singles in four times at bat. Bob Frodsham cracked a pair of doubles and Jay Van Wagenen hit one. Tom Payne hit a triple for the losers.

Bichall's 195 Tops Keglers in Central Major

Richard Birchall cracked Kingston's elite corps of bowlers to pace the Central Rec Major league with a 195.29 average for 72 games of the 1956-57 season.

Birchall qualified for average by two games, the minimum being 70 in a 105-game marathon.

Harold Broskie was runnerup with 192.44 for 96 sets. George Shufeldt hit 190.19 in 102 starts and George Robinson set a 190.1 pace for 105 games.

Broskie rolled 726 high series and Bill Lawrence topped the solos with 279. Team marks were Tommie's Tavern's 1124 and 3115 by Tony's Pizzeria, the league champions with 66½ wins and 38½ losses.

Midget Racing Returns To Middletown Friday

Midget car racing makes its season's debut at Victory Speedways in Middletown Friday night when Promoter Enno Van Dam presents a complete program of the little "bombs."

Some of the best racing drivers to be seen this year on the half-mile dirt oval are expected to appear. Leading the pack will be Johnny Thompson who qualified for the Indianapolis 500 last Memorial Day.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST By hal sharp

DON'T DISCLOSE YOURSELF TO FISH

DON'T LET SUNLIGHT REFLECT FROM YOU INTO A POOL YOU INTEND TO FISH; INSTINCTIVELY, FISH WOULD RETREAT AT ONCE.

AVOID WHITE, OR LIGHT-COLORED CLOTHING THAT ATTRACTS FISH-ATTENTION TO ANY MOVEMENT, IN SUNLIGHT OR NOT.

FISH FROM THE SHADE IF YOU CAN, OR KEEP SUN BEHIND YOU --BUT DON'T LET YOUR SHADOW FALL UPON THE FISHING AREA.

DON'T OUTLINE YOURSELF BETWEEN SKY AND FISH; KEEP A BACKDROP OF LANDSCAPE BEHIND YOU. IF THAT CANNOT BE, CRAWL TO A FISHING LOCATION.

'Pilgrim' to 'Scallop'

In the Middle Ages, pilgrims wore a scallop shell on their hats to show that they had crossed the sea to the Holy Land, hence the name "pilgrim shells" for "scallop shells."

Favorite Wins English Derby

Epsom, England, June 5 (AP)—Favored Crepello, owned by Sir Victor Sassoon of England, stormed from behind in the last two furlongs today to win the famed English Derby.

Ballymoss, a long shot owned by John McSwain of Philadelphia, was second. Pipe of Peace, owned by Greek shipping magnate Stavros Niarchos, was third in the field of 22.

An Irish hospital sweepstakes is based on the race.

Crepello, at 6-4, was the shortest priced horse to win the mile and a half classic since the Aga Khan's Bahram won at 5-4 odds in 1935. Ballymoss was 33-1 and Pipe of Peace, 100-8.

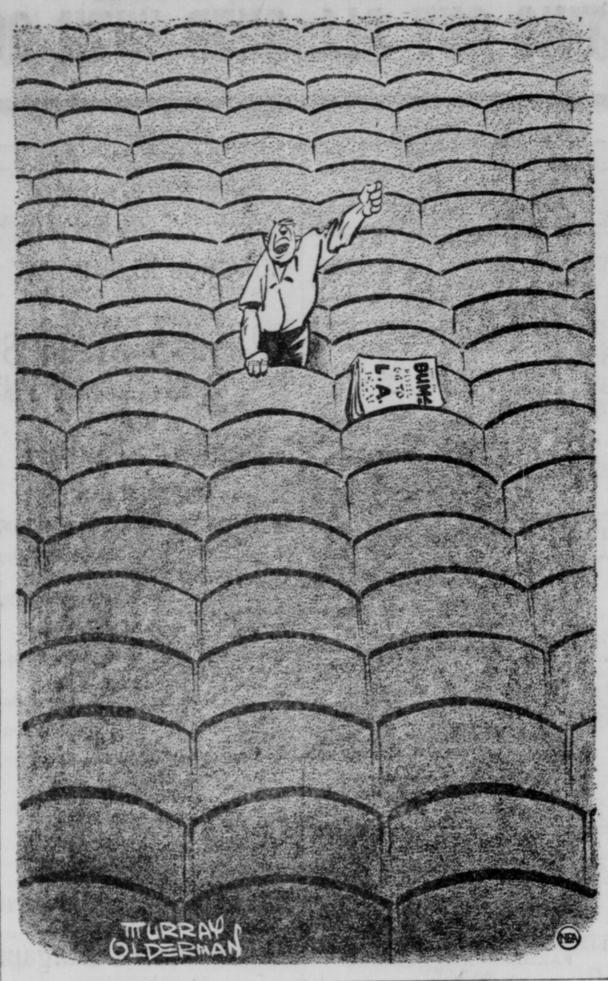

Crepello, a chestnut colt, was given a beautiful ride by Jockey Lester Piggott to enable England to break the French hold on this ancient race. French owners won the race in 1955 and 1956.

Hollywood Ace At Lime Rock

Lime Rock, Conn.—John van Neumann of Hollywood, Cal., one of the top sports car drivers on West Coast, will make one of his rare Eastern appearances when he competes in the national championship races at Lime Rock Park on Saturday and Sunday. (June 8 and 9.)

Van Neumann, who will be driving a Ferrari Testa Rossa, will be racing against a field of 200 of the nation's best drivers on the mile and one-half Lime Rock track, newest sports car racing layout in the East.

WE
- haven't been in business a hundred years!
- don't offer all one-owner cars!
- don't have any quotas to meet!
- don't give away stamps or prizes!
- don't allow fabulous trade-in allowances!
- do not sell guarantees!
- are not being horse whipped by the boss!

BUT
- we do have a nice selection of clean, fairly priced used cars!
- we certainly have a different way of doing business!

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 5, 1957

Sun rises at 4:21 a. m.; sun sets at 7:28 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather: Mostly fair.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 54 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 76 degrees.

Weather Forecast

NEW YORK CITY and vicinity: Hazy skies, with some sunshine this afternoon and temperatures in the 70s except near 70 close to the ocean; considerable cloudiness tonight and Thursday, with a chance of some rain developing by Thursday; lowest temperatures tonight in the 55-to-65 degree range, the highest Thursday much the same as today.

OUTLOOK: Friday partly cloudy and warm, with chance of showers. Saturday mostly fair with pleasant temperatures.

EASTERN New York: Some cloudiness but generally fair with moderate temperatures today and tonight. High today 65 to 70 north and 68 to 76 south, low tonight in the 40s and lower 50s. Thursday partly cloudy and a little warmer with a chance of scattered showers in the afternoon or evening, high in the upper 60s and 70s.

GENERALLY FAIR

Victory Is Soured

Rome, June 5 (AP)—Christian Democrat Premier Adone Zoli's new one-party government won its first parliamentary vote of confidence today. But victory was soured by unsolicited Fascist-Monarchist support. The 132-93 vote came after a stormy night Senate session in which Zoli blasted Communist and Fascist deputies alike and told them he did not want their help. Word spread after the predawn vote that 69-year-old Zoli might resign because of the unwanted rightist support.

Dry away your tears, begin using classified ads in the KINGSTON DAILY FREEMAN.

Lack of Insurance Hits 4,700 Operators

Buffalo, June 5 (AP)—Approximately 4,700 motor vehicle operators in seven western New York counties lost their license plates in the past three months because insurance coverage on the vehicles had lapsed.

Michael F. Seereiter, Buffalo district tax supervisor of the state department of taxation and finance, reported yesterday that revocations numbered 1,000 in March, 700 in April and 3,000 in May.

Seereiter added, however, that a large number of the revocations were rescinded after the owners showed continuations of insurance coverage.

Revocation of plates is required under the state compulsory auto insurance law if the vehicles are uncovered. The law went into effect Feb. 1.

If their plates are revoked, motorists must wait 30 days before they can apply for new ones.

The seven counties covered by Seereiter's report are Niagara, Erie, Chautauqua, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming and Cattaraugus.

Overwhelming Response

Chillicothe, Ohio, (AP) — Ten prospective blood donors at the Federal Reformatory here had to be turned down recently. The Red Cross bloodmobile ran out of bottles after collecting 208 pints of blood from other inmates.

TO FACE JAPANESE COURT —Army Specialist Third Class William C. Girard, 21, above, charged with killing a Japanese woman, will be turned over to a Japanese court for trial rather than trial by a military court-martial, the Pentagon announced in Washington June 4. (AP Wirephoto)

Six Are Indicted For Theft of Drugs

New City, June 5 (AP) — Six former employes of a Pearl River, N. Y., pharmaceutical plant were indicted yesterday in the theft of $300,000 worth of antibiotics from the firm.

The six were arrested last March. Rockland county police said the thefts occurred over a period of a year at Lederle laboratories.

After their arrest, the men were suspended from Local 143, International Chemical Workers Union.

Charged with first-degree larceny are:

Alexander Zilko, 35, of (610 Rivervale avenue) Rivervale, N. J.; James J. Foley, 42, of (52 Mountain View avenue.) Pearl River; Charles Schultze, 42, of (342 N. Middleton Rd.) Pearl River; Henry G. Pelleti of (Orchard Lane) Nanuet, N. Y.; Benjamin Alfred Pay, 41, of (Third street) Park Ridge, N. J.; and Perry G. Clement, 37, of (Marsh Hill road) New Milford.

Pflimlin Chances Dim

Paris, June 5 (AP)—Opposition from the Socialist left today appeared to finish the chances of Catholic leader Pierre Pflimlin to form a cabinet and end France's 18th postwar government crisis. The Socialist National Committee voted 73-21 this morning against taking part in a Pflimlin government. Since Socialist participation was one of his key conditions, it was virtually certain he would go to President Rene Coty this afternoon and report failure.
